

Sister Queen.—It would be wiser to originate a uniform of your own, as the one you mention is becoming so widely adopted it will soon cease to distinguish the Nurses of the Hospital to which it originally belonged. Black and scarlet or black and green have not yet been used.

Country Matron.—The measures you require can be obtained in all sizes at Maw and Sons, Aldersgate Street, E.C. You will find "A Guide to the Instruments and Appliances required in Various Operations," by A. W. Mayo Robson, F.R.C.S., will be very useful. It can be obtained from G. and A. Churchill, 11, New Burlington Street, W.

Nurse Emily.—A knowledge of French would be indispensable.

Miss Wilson.—It is an American journal and comes out monthly. Published by the Lake-side Publishing Co., Buffalo, New York.

B. B.—We should advise you to write direct to the Director of the Army Medical Department, Victoria Street, Westminster. The Nursing Department is now so well organised that we much doubt if extra assistance would be required in time of war, but you can lose nothing by making inquiries. If you are a member of the B.N.A. you had better write to the Secretary, as of course an official inquiry on the subject would be much more likely to receive attention than one from a private individual.

M. S.—The Nursing Record has no official connection whatsoever with the British Nurses' Association. We support that Society purely from an independent standpoint, and should be quite ready to adversely criticise it should such treatment be required. We give it all the journalistic assistance in our power, because we consider it to be, as we have frequently shown in our columns, the only Association at present likely to meet the requirements and the improved position of Trained Nurses.
