

than one Nurse desirous of joining, and with upwards of four years record of good conduct and work in their Wards, who has found it very difficult to get a good recommendation from the autocrat of her Hospital, when it has become known that she meant to work in connection with the new Society, and no longer be deprived of two-thirds of her earnings, and thereby increase the enormous salary of her superior officer. I feel sure that your love of justice will find some means of criticising this tyranny.—I remain, Sir, yours faithfully,

CO-OPERATION.

[We entirely sympathise with our correspondent, and thoroughly approve of the system of co-operation amongst Nurses. Our only reason for silence is that our inquiries have not yet enabled us to strongly support the example of the system to which our correspondent alludes.—ED.]

POST-CARD COMPETITIONS.

To the Editor of "The Nursing Record."

Dear Sir,—I have just heard that you have sent me two books, "Prince Albert's Golden Precepts," and "Thomas à Kempis's Birthday Book." I am sure I shall be pleased with them when I return home. Thank you very much.—I am, dear Sir, yours gratefully, RACHEL H. BIRRELL.

COMPETITIVE PRIZE ESSAY, TWENTY-FOURTH COMPETITION.

A Book or Books of the value of One Guinea will be awarded for an Essay upon the following subject:—

"Describe in full the amount and kind of help required in a Hospital laundry. The Hospital contains sixty-four beds; and there is a daily average of fifty-four patients. Their personal linen is not washed at the Hospital. The Staff consisting of House Surgeon, Matron, eight Nurses, and ten servants, there are about eighty Ward sheets, fourteen quilts, fourteen blankets, eighty pillow-cases, towels, &c., besides the house linen, eighty Nurses' and Servants' aprons, and, of course, a large number of collars and cuffs, to be washed each week. The servants all wear cotton dresses, but not the Nurses. The washing is not to be done by machinery."

RULES.

1.—Contributions to be sent to the Editor, at the office of THE NURSING RECORD, not later than Saturday, June 6, 1891, addressed as follows:—"Prize Essay Competition, THE NURSING RECORD, St. Dunstan's House, Fetter Lane, London, E.C."

2.—Manuscript must be written distinctly in ink and on one side of the paper only, upon not less than 24 nor more than 48 pages of ordinary-sized ruled sermon paper. The pages must be numbered and fastened together.

3.—The real and full name and address (stating whether Miss or Mrs., of the Competitor must be inscribed on the back of each contribution, and notification of which Hospital or Institution the Competitor has been or is attached to.

4.—Trained Nurses or those personally associated with Nursing work only allowed to compete.

Winners in previous Competitions are permitted to compete, but in case of a "tie" the prize would be awarded to the Competitor who has not secured a prize before.

The decision of the Prize Essay Editor to be final, and any infringement of the above Rules will be considered a disqualification.
