OVERHEARD AT THE CONVERSAZIONE.

THAT the Conversazione is a great fact.
 That Princess Christian looks as beautiful as she is good, and that she looked regal in her crimson-gold gown.
 That we cannot spare Princess Victoria to Germany.
 That Lady Jeune's white hair is quite lovely.
 That Sir William Savory did his part with exquisite courtesy, which one could wish was more in vogue in 1891.
 That it was very touching to see the Lord Chancellor wafting kisses on his finger-tips to Mr. Sam Pope, Q.C.
 That Sir Henry Thompson looked more youthful than ever, and thinks this "a great movement."
 That Sir James Crichton Browne should be in "the House."
 That Miss Isla Stewart makes a very gracious hostess.
 That Mrs. Bedford Fenwick's was the cream of curtseys.
 That Miss Catherine Wood is going to enlarge the "Hostel."
 That Dr. Bezly Thorne is "true grit."
 That Dr. Bedford Fenwick is a splendid organiser.
