THE CHICAGO EXHIBITION.

To the Editor of "The Nursing Record."

SIR,—With a view to rendering the exhibits in connection with Nursing, as complete as possible at the forthcoming World's Fair, at Chicago, I should feel greatly obliged if you would permit me, on behalf of our sub-committee, to invite, through the medium of your columns, the heads of Hospital and Infirmary Training Schools for Nurses throughout the United Kingdom—whose standard of training is not less than three years—to kindly assist in the matter, by sending me, on or before December 1st, a copy of the certificate they issue, and lend any badge or medal peculiar to their institution, or which may have been obtained for any special service rendered to the cause of Nursing. The Committee will hold itself directly responsible for the insurance, and safety of all such articles, which will be returned to the owners when the Exhibition closes.—I am, Sir, yours faithfully,
 JOSEPHINE L. DE PLEDGE, Matron,
 Chelsea Infirmary, Cale Street, S.W. October 13th, 1892.

THE CLERICAL CONSCIENCE.

To the Editor of "The Nursing Record."

SIR,—I have read with much indignation your account of the cruelty shown to a Nurse at the Worcester Infirmary. I would, as a Nonconformist, like to point out that there are six or seven Church of England clergymen on the Committee of that Institution—that the Committee have supported the Matron, and practically expressed their approval of her abusive language to, and her assault with violence upon, this helpless Nurse—that the Committee thus clerically supported,

I am informed, even undertook to defray the Matron's expenses when the Nurse brought an action against her. It is the fashion to scoff at the "Nonconformist conscience." I thank God that most Nonconformists would feel ashamed to support cruel injustice and wrong—to side with the stronger against the weak—with the many against the one. Go on, Sir, and insist upon bare justice being done to this cruelly treated girl, and you will find many who will support you.—Your obedient Servant,

AN INDIGNANT NONCONFORMIST.

[We have been compelled to omit several sentences from the above, which, in our opinion, were too strongly-worded. We refer to the matter elsewhere, and can assure our correspondent that we have not the slightest intention of relinquishing our demand for justice. The Committee are merely prejudicing their own case by attempting to ignore the wrong which has been done under their jurisdiction.—ED.]
