THE NEW NURSE.

SEVERAL medical readers of this journal have been good enough to send us copies of the Practitioner, a journal edited by Mr. Malcolm Morris, a gentlemen who has on previous occasions provided amusement for many of his readers by the evident malice of his comments upon what he is pleased to term "The New Nurse." He now expresses his ingenuous amazement at the fact that Professor Allbutt's "monumental System of Medicine" contains an article written by a Nurse. To Mr. Malcolm Morris this appears "a somewhat startling sign of the times," but we imagine there are comparatively few other medical men who will be so easily alarmed. In "monumental" text-books it is by no means unusual for the editors to publish articles written by experts; and perhaps even Mr. Malcolm Morris would
