THE ROYAL BRITISH NURSES' ASSOCIATION

IT is with the deepest regret and reluctance that we are compelled, in the interests of truth and justice, to publish in another column the deplorable proceedings which took place last week, at the Meeting of the General Council of the Royal British Nurses' Association.

It will be remembered that, at the Annual Meeting of the Royal British Nurses' Association, Miss Breay, on behalf of a considerable number of Matrons of leading Hospitals and of a very large number of Nurses, gave notice of her intention to move the following resolution:—

"That this meeting of the Corporation expresses its strong disapproval of the methods of management pursued by the present Executive Committee, especially concerning the manner in which the pledges given by the Association have been broken; in which the expenditure of the Association
