Our Guinea Prize.

We have pleasure in announcing that our Guinea Prize for October has been won by Miss Milne, Cornelia Hospital, Poole.

KEY TO PUZZLE.

No. 1.—Farmer's Mail Cart.   Farmers Mail Cart.

No. 2.—Listerine.   List E.R. in E.

No. 3.—Robb's Biscuits.   Robs biscuits.

No. 4.—Hospitals and General Contracts Company, Limited.   Hospitals and General Contracts Co. (Limited).

Here are some of the solutions suggested :—

1. Carter Paterson's Royal Mail Cart.   Postum Cereal.

2. State Registration.   Day's Blacking.   Wellcome's Hazeline.

3. Ratafia Biscuits.   Spratt's Biscuits.

4. Debenham and Freebody copy any uniform.
   [This is ingenious and true, but unfortunately not the correct solution.]

The new set of Prize Puzzles will be found on page viii.

The rules for the Guinea Prize remain the same.

"LEO," THE WINNER OF OUR GUINEA PRIZE.

The following competitors have also answered the questions correctly :—

Miss L. Hindley, Cornelia Hospital, Poole.

Miss C. Hindley, Cornelia Hospital, Poole.

Miss S. E. Polden (Matron), Royal United Hospital, Bath.

Sister Marion, Royal United Hospital, Bath.

Miss E. C. Ryder, 101, Stephen's Green, Dublin.

Miss E. Richardson, Accident Infirmary, Hebburn-on-Tyne.

"Leo," Lincoln House, Harrow.

The puzzles seem to have been unusually difficult this month, and many competitors have gone wrong on one or more points.

We have much pleasure in publishing a letter from "Leo," the doggie who won our guinea prize last month. He also sent us his picture, which appears on this page. This is Leo's letter :—

DEAR MADAM,—Bow wow wow! Please don't be alarmed at my bark ; this is the friendly way I always begin my letters. I want to tell you how I nearly wagged my bushy tail off when I read in the JOURNAL that I was the successful competitor last month for those very curious puzzles (they are really enough to make a dog laugh sometimes). My mistress is giving me a "real treat," and is allowing me to put the guinea into my collection for the Harrow Cottage Hospital, for which I have been working since June, having
