

Appointments.

MATRONS.

Miss F. M. Swain has been appointed Matron of the Mount Vernon Hospital for Consumption, Hampstead. She was trained at St. Mary's Hospital, Paddington, and at the General Hospital, Bristol. She has had experience in the work of the institution, having held the post of Sister there. She has also been Matron of the Hospital at Northwood, which is connected with the Mount Vernon Hospital, from the time of its opening.

Miss E. C. Lawrence, Matron of the Victoria Hospital, Keighley, has been appointed Lady Superintendent at Netley House Nursing Home, Cavendish Square, W. She served in South Africa during the war in connection with Princess Christian Field Hospital, Natal.

Miss Armstrong, of Ruchill Fever Hospital, Glasgow, has been appointed Matron of the New Infectious Diseases Hospital at Strichin. Miss Armstrong was selected out of twenty-seven candidates. The hospital will be ready for patients about the end of June, but the Matron will be in residence some time previously in order to attend to the furnishing and other necessary arrangements.

SISTERS.

Miss Florence Freeman has been appointed Sister at the Salisbury Infirmary. She was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Hull, and at Queen Charlotte's Hospital, London. She has also held the appointments of Staff Nurse at the Cottage Hospital, Bromley, and of Sister at the Victoria Hospital, Blackpool.

Miss M. Atkins has been appointed Sister at the Kensington Infirmary, where she received her training.

Miss M. D. Laurence, also trained in the same institution, has received a similar appointment.

NIGHT SISTER.

Miss Annie Tyers has been appointed Night Sister-in-Charge at the Workhouse Infirmary, Wolverhampton. She was trained at the East Dulwich Infirmary, and has held the position of Charge Nurse at the Eastern Fever Hospital, and of Charge Nurse and of Night Superintendent at the Central London Sick Asylum.

CHARGE NURSE.

Miss Elizabeth Watson has been appointed Charge Nurse at the Workhouse Infirmary, Norwich. She was trained at the Liverpool Hospital for Cancer and Diseases of the Skin, and has been Charge Nurse at the Union Hospital, Middlesbrough, Night Nurse at the Dorchester County Hospital, and Maternity Nurse at the Union Hospital, Nottingham.
