

The Matrons' Council.

COMPLIMENTARY DINNER TO MISS ISLA STEWART.

The following letter is being issued by Mrs. Walter Spencer:—

DEAR MADAM,—We have the pleasure to inform you that, in recognition and appreciation of her public work, a Complimentary Dinner to Miss Isla Stewart will be held in the Georgian Hall, Gaiety Restaurant, on Saturday, June 27th. Reception at 7.30. Dinner at 8 o'clock.

This date marks the completion by Miss Stewart of twenty-one years' work as Matron of St. Bartholomew's Hospital.

The chair will be taken by Mrs. Bedford Fenwick, Vice-President, and the Council has invited a number of distinguished guests.

It is expected that many members of the Matrons' Council and other societies will desire to be present on such an occasion, and it is important that early intimation of such desire should be sent to the Dinner Secretary in order to prevent disappointment, as the dining hall will not seat more than 250 people.

In applying for tickets, it should be stated if any are required for private guests, and whether for ladies or gentlemen. As far as possible, arrangements will be made for friends or parties to sit together, if a request to this effect is sent to the Dinner Secretary not later than June 21st.

Price of tickets, 10s. 6d. each.

Indoor uniform or evening dress should be worn. Cheques should be made payable to E. Spencer.

We are, dear Madam,

Yours faithfully,

ETHEL GORDON FENWICK,
Vice-President.

MARGARET BREAY,
Hon. Secretary.

ELIZABETH SPENCER,
Dinner Secretary.

35, Brook Street, Grosvenor Square,
