

APPOINTMENTS.

MATRONS.

Queen's Hospital, Birmingham.—Miss E. Bullivant, A.R.R.C., has been appointed Matron. She was trained for four years at the Queen's Hospital, and has held there the positions of Ward Sister, Senior Massage Sister, Home Sister and Assistant Matron. She is a certified Midwife, and certificated Masseuse, I.S.T.M.

Tuberculosis Dispensary, Bury.—Miss Grace M. Barker has been appointed Matron. She was trained at the North Evington Infirmary, Leicester; and has been Maternity Sister at Wakefield Infirmary and Home Sister at Spittel Hospital, Stoke-on-Trent.

ASSISTANT MATRONS.

Isolation Hospital and Sanatorium, Grove Road, Chadwell, Essex.—Miss Helena McLoughlin has been appointed Assistant Matron. She was trained at the Swindon Isolation Hospital and the Royal Hospital, Portsmouth, and has done military nursing at the Military Hospital, Colchester, and the Military Hospital, Cairo.

SISTERS.

Borough Hospital, Birkenhead.—Miss E. Swinden has been appointed Sister. She was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Hull; and has been Sister at the Children's Hospital, Sheffield.

Eccles and Patricroft Hospital, near Manchester.—Miss A. Donohue has been appointed Sister of a Women's Ward and of the Out-patient Department. She was trained at the General Infirmary, Blackburn, and also in Fever nursing, and has served with Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service Reserve.

Miss M. A. Allen has been appointed Sister of a Men's Ward and of the Theatre in the same Institution. She was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Huddersfield, and has done private nursing for the Royal Infirmary, Preston, and been Sister at St. Vincent's Cripple Home, Eastcote, Pinner, and at the General Infirmary, Warrington, and has worked in Dublin and Mesopotamia as a member of Q.A.I.M.N.S.R.

HEAD NURSE.

King Hill Institution, West Malling.—Miss Amelia A. Alder has been appointed Head Nurse. She was trained at the Westminster Infirmary and has been Superintendent Nurse under the Uxbridge Union, and Night Sister under the Metropolitan Asylums Board.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S JUBILEE INSTITUTE FOR NURSES.

TRANSFERS AND APPOINTMENTS.

Miss Emily Stacey is appointed to Metropolitan N.A. as Senior Nurse. Mrs. Annie Alexander is appointed to Chard; Miss Florence Barker to Hoddeston; Miss Minnie Bishop to Draycott and Wilne; Miss Clara E. G. Little to East London (South); Miss Constance M. Macey to Liverpool (Walton); Miss Margaret M. Roberts to Thetford; Miss Annie Shaw to Arnold and Daybrook; Miss Winifred H. Silvester to Wolverhampton.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S JUBILEE INSTITUTE FOR NURSES.

Examination for the Roll of Queen's Nurses, June, 1919.

1. In visiting the houses of working people, as a District Nurse, what defects have you specially noticed in their dwellings which you would like to see remedied in a new building scheme?
(a) Structural arrangement of rooms, &c.; (b)

sanitary and water supply? Give a brief plan of the minimum accommodation suitable for a family of six persons—father, mother and four children?

2. Describe in detail how you would nurse a case of a lying-in woman; what special points would be noted daily?

3. What advice would you give in a case of chronic phthisis which has to be nursed at home?

4. Describe how you would give a wet pack in the district?

5. What advice would you give in regard to the storage of food and milk, especially in hot weather?

6. What would you consider your duties when employed as an Infant Health Visitor?

PRIZES FOR NURSES.

Recently, at the Bagthorpe Infirmary, Nottingham, presentations of prizes and certificates were made to a number of nurses.

The gold medal for third-year nurse was awarded to Miss E. Coxall; gold medal for second-year nurse, Nurse Hampshire; silver medal, Miss C. Harding; bronze medal, Nurse Robinson; second prize for third-year nurse, Nurse Potter; third prize, Nurse Holland; second prize for second-year nurse, Nurse Berridge; third prize, Nurse Smith; second prize for first-year nurse, Nurse Athey; third prize, Nurse C. Robinson; prize for all-round qualification, Nurse Harrison; prize for children's nurse, Nurse Hardy; certificates of efficiency, Nurses M. Winstanley, E. Coxall, A. Corbett, C. E. Wakelin, R. O. Hagan, and M. Davis.

The prizes were presented by Mrs. De Hersant, and those present included Mr. J. T. Thompson, Chairman of the House Committee of the Board of Guardians; Miss Dwight, the Matron; Miss Kendall, Matron at the General Hospital; and Miss Sparks, Matron at Bagthorpe Military Hospital.

THE STORY OF ENGLISH PUBLIC HEALTH.

The issue by Messrs. Cassell & Co., Ltd. (La. Belle Sauvage, Ludgate Hill, E.C. 4) of two books in their English Public Health Series, "The Story of English Public Health," by Sir Malcolm Morris, K.C.V.O., and "Infant and Young Child Welfare," by Harold Scurfield, M.D. Edin., D.P.H., is very opportune. We hope to review these books, the price of each of which is 5s. net, at an early date.

A ROYAL VISIT TO THE MEDICAL MISSIONS EXHIBITION.

On June 28th, at 3 p.m.—that fateful moment in the world's history—Her Majesty the Queen, accompanied by the Princess Mary, paid a visit to the United Medical Missions Exhibition being held at St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, Trafalgar Square. After witnessing some missionary scenes, Her Majesty visited the Medical Courts, where the stewards in attendance were all members of the Nursing Profession, including Sisters and Nurses from the following Training Schools:—Charing Cross, Guy's, King's College, London Temperance

previous page

next page