

It was hoped that after the Report had been submitted for consideration by the Grand Council of the F.N.I.F., publicity would be given to the whole matter.

REAPPOINTMENT OF DELEGATES.

Miss E. M. Musson and Miss M. S. Cochrane were re-elected as Delegates of the National Council on to the Committee of Management of the Florence Nightingale International Foundation, having signified their consent to act.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION, I.C.N.

Proposed Amendments to the Constitution of the I.C.N., other than from Great Britain, were considered, and the delegates were instructed how to vote, when they were submitted to the Board of Directors and Grand Council of the I.C.N. in July.

Miss H. Dey, Miss A. M. Bushby, Miss S. Villiers, and Miss I. Macdonald are the elected Delegates of the National Council of Great Britain.

A vote of thanks was accorded the Chair.
The Meeting then terminated.

THE NURSES' ORGANISATIONS.

THE COLLEGE OF NURSING.

Like many other nursing organisations, the College of Nursing is availing itself of its association with the International Council of Nurses through our National Council to organise nursing activities before and after the dates of the Congress Meeting. Post-Graduate Courses have been organised in Industrial Nursing, Tuberculosis, Rheumatism and School Work, Ophthalmic Nursing, Educational Psychology and Methods of Teaching, Maternal Welfare and Nutrition, History of Nursing, Physiotherapy. The fees range, per course, from 1s. for College members to £1 1s., for non-members from 6s. to £1 6s. Information and tickets can be obtained from the Director, Education Department, College of Nursing, Henrietta Street, W.1.

CROYDON GENERAL HOSPITAL.

The Sports Club opened the season this year with a Tennis Tea. Nurse Coursens—representing first year nurses—was the winner of the singles tournament arranged for the afternoon. The warm and sunny weather contributed in no small measure to the success of an occasion which was thoroughly enjoyed by both staff and visitors.

A highly successful dance was attended by many ex-members of the Nursing Staff.

The Sports Club Concert Party will give an entertainment in the Nurses' Home on Friday, May 28th, at 9 p.m. Ex-members of the Nursing Staff are cordially invited.

THE LEAGUE OF FEVER NURSES.

A very successful Annual Meeting of the League of Fever Nurses was held on Thursday, May 6th, at the Plaistow Fever Hospital, London, E.13, by the kind permission of the authorities. Miss W. P. Solomon, R.R.C., President, was in the chair.

Miss M. Drakard, Hon. Secretary, presented the Annual Report, which showed increase of membership and satisfactory progress during the year.

Miss W. P. Solomon, President, and Miss A. Stewart Bryson, Hon. Treasurer, were re-elected for a further term of office; Miss J. T. Ruddy was unanimously elected Hon. Secretary in place of Miss M. Drakard, resigned, owing to ill-health.

INFECTIOUS HOSPITALS MATRONS' ASSOCIATION.

The Annual General Meeting of the Infectious Hospitals Matrons' Association will be held at Lodge Moor Hospital, Sheffield, on June 5th, at 3.30 p.m.

APPOINTMENTS.

MATRON.

Woodside Hospital for Functional Nervous Disorders, Muswell Hill, London, N.—Miss I. E. Tebbutt, S.R.N., has been appointed Matron. She was trained at Guy's Hospital, London, and has been Sister at the Royal Surrey County Hospital, Guildford. Assistant Matron at the Royal Sussex County Mental Hospital, and Assistant Matron at the Brookwood Mental Hospital, Surrey.

Smithdown Road Hospital, Liverpool.—Miss R. M. Dunlop, S.R.N., has been appointed Matron. She was trained at the Walton Hospital, and the Mill Road Infirmary, Liverpool, where she has since been Ward Sister, Maternity Sister, Night Superintendent, Theatre Sister, Home Sister, Assistant Matron and Deputy Matron.

Royal Liverpool Children's Hospital, Heswall, Cheshire.—Miss M. E. Shiach, S.R.N., has been appointed Matron. She was trained at King's College, Hospital, London, and at the Royal Hospital for Sick Children, Edinburgh, and has held posts as Theatre Sister, Surgical Ward Sister, Night Sister, Home and Housekeeping Sister, and Assistant Matron.

Infectious Diseases Hospital, Watford.—Miss G. M. Lawes S.R.N., has been appointed Matron. She was trained at the London Hospital, and has been Night Superintendent at the North-Western Fever Hospital, Hampstead, London, N.W. e

Torbay Hospital, Torquay.—Miss Isabella Swift, S.R.N., has been appointed Matron. She was trained at the General Hospital, Bristol, where she has since been Matron's Office Sister and Assistant Tutor Sister; Sister-in-Charge of Men's Medical Wards, Home Sister, Night Superintendent, and Assistant Matron.

SISTER TUTOR.

St. Charles' Hospital, St. Charles' Square, Ladbroke Grove, London, W.—Miss D. L. Hall, S.R.N., S.C.M., D.N., has been appointed Sister Tutor. She was trained at St. Giles' Hospital, London, S.E., and has been Staff Nurse at the Royal Free Hospital, London, W.C., Sister at St. Andrew's Hospital, Bow, London, E., and Sister Tutor at Epping Institution, Epping Town, Essex. Miss Hall holds the Sister Tutor's Certificate.

THEATRE SISTER:

Eye Hospital, Bristol.—Miss A. G. Sandling, S.R.N., has been appointed Home Sister. She was trained at King Edward VII Hospital, Windsor, and has been Staff Nurse and Night Sister at the Princess Alice Hospital, Eastbourne. Miss Sandling holds the Housekeeping Certificate of the General Hospital, Bristol.

DEPARTMENTAL SISTER (THEATRE).

St. Leonard's Hospital, Shoreditch, London, N.—Miss M. A. Bews, S.R.N., has been appointed Theatre Sister. She was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Doncaster, and has been Ward Sister, Night Sister and Theatre Sister, under the Ministry of Pensions, and Theatre Sister at the Empire Nursing Home, Vincent Square, London, S.W.

Bethnal Green Hospital, Cambridge Road, London, E.—Miss E. Kinkaid, S.R.N., S.C.M., has been appointed Theatre Sister. She was trained at the Lambeth Hospital, London, S.E., where she was later Pupil Midwife, Staff Nurse, Theatre Sister, Medical and Surgical Ward Sister. Miss Kinkaid has also been Surgical Ward Sister at St. Alfege's Hospital, Greenwich, and holds the Tuberculosis Certificate of the Brompton Hospital.

LEGACIES FOR NURSES.

Mr. A. H. Burton, M.D., of Laxford House, Suffolk, left £2,000 to his nurse, Helena Mackay Scottay "in grateful acknowledgment of her skilled attention and faithful service in a time of severe illness and her constant daily care of me since."

Sir Robert Leicester Harmsworth, who left estate of the gross value of £596,379, left an annuity of £218 to Sister McCann, "as a mark of gratitude for all she has done for my health and well-being during a long period."

previous page

next page