CALLARD'S

DIASTISED MEAL BISCUITS

FOR

INDIGESTION

THE BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL, June 5th, 1894, says:—

"These Biscuits are made of a brown wheat-meal, subjected to treatment by which a considerable portion of the starch is converted into a soluble form. They are therefore easily digested and nutritious. By the addition of hops an aromatic bitter flavour is given, which is both agreeable and appetising. It is claimed that the Biscuits are thus specially adapted for invalids and persons subject to indigestion, and examination of them shows that their composition and general character justify their recommendation for those purposes.

"The makers are Messrs. CALLARD & Co., of 65, Regent Street, who are well known as manufacturers of diabetic and other kinds of foods for invalids."

Price 1/6 per tin. Post free, 1/10½.
