REPLIES TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Mrs. Arthur, Chelsea.—Many thanks for paper; we shall make use of "par" for Special Number. We greatly appreciate the public recognition of the work accomplished by the educated and thoroughly qualified Nurse, which is so generously accorded in Canada and the States.

Mr. Edward Connor, Brixton.—We received MS., and were much interested in the subject; it will appear in our Special Number.

Miss Flower, Bath.—Obtain the "Nursing Directory" from the Manager, NURSING RECORD Office, 11, Adam Street, Strand; in it you will find the addresses of the leading Nursing Schools and their regulations. You will probably have to wait for a vacancy; Nursing is now a very popular branch of women's work.

Miss G. Taylor, Manchester.—We should not advise your giving up constant employment in Manchester on the mere chance of obtaining it in London. During last summer great numbers of private Nurses were unemployed.
