REPLIES TO CORRESPONDENTS.

An Admirer of Consistency.—Very pleased to express your views, but cannot deal with anonymous correspondence. Send your name and address.

Miss W. Greenhough, Erith.—Thanks for enclosure

Miss Edith Mawe, Cairo.—So many thanks for kind letters and interest. Shall be pleased to receive papers and "pars"; we heard of your work through Mrs. Crawford. Some day we shall pay you a visit and see the beautiful Nursing Home. It is indeed a matter of sincere congratulation that such progress has been effected by "Bart.'s pioneers" in so short a time in nursing matters in Egypt. We feel personal pride in the success of its pupils.

Miss Palliser, London.—Call on the Manager of the RECORD, 11, Adam Street, Strand; she is in sincere sympathy with Nurses and their work, and will advise you.

Miss Rossiter, Dublin.—We should recommend you to enter a Fever Hospital for the summer. There are too many private Nurses already needing work; it is therefore kinder not to enter into competition with them until the winter.

Would-be Lecturer.—Please read the RECORD of the past two weeks; you will see that we have already expressed a strong conviction that Nurse-Lecturers should be highly trained women. How can you expect to teach Nursing after attending only twelve lectures? It seems to us that it shows a want of thoroughness—and we might almost say principle—for you who are, on your own confession, a mere apprentice, to pose as a Professor of Nursing.

We are constantly receiving complaints that the NURSING RECORD cannot be obtained at Smith & Sons' bookstalls. We venture, therefore to advise anyone who is unable to obtain a copy to write, stating station and date, to the Manager, NURSING RECORD Office, 11, Adam Street, Strand.
