Mrs. Ambrose, Limerick.—We are always greatly pleased to hear of appreciation of the NURSING RECORD, especially as we are fully aware that a paper which aims at inspiring women with a sense of public duty is quite certain to be unpopular with certain members of the community; but we have a certain and well-defined policy—we demand that women, and especially trained Nurses, shall be accorded that liberty of thought and action which is the inalienable right of every human being, and which alone can produce a band of professional women worthy of the respect of the community. Your news gives us much encouragement.

Miss M. K. Dowding.—We regret that at present we have not space for the articles on the particular subject you mention.

Miss Hastings, Swindon.—Call at the Office, 11, Adam Street, Strand; you can there gain the information you require.

Miss Townley, Manchester.—We are quite of your opinion; the Matrons' Council have under consideration the matter which you name, and we hope at an early date to give publicity to the subject.

Miss Waring, Bath.—A preliminary meeting has already taken place to discuss the subject, at which several representative women were present. We hope to have a suggestive article soon in one of the monthlies concerning the necessity for such an organisation, and have little doubt that it will be definitely organised in the near future. "The little golden band of women's fellowship must embrace the world."
