

CRISP & Co., Limited,

Beg to announce that their Annual

SUMMER SALE

Will commence on

MONDAY, July 1, 1895.

Before the break-up of the LONDON SEASON, and in ample time for those who are about to leave town for the Summer holidays to avail themselves of its advantages to the uttermost, the whole of the Stocks, constituting this Great Store, are distributed to the public at, in many cases, little more than half the former prices, the principle upon which the business is conducted being to "sell out" every class of goods in the remotest degree subject to the caprices of fashion. The coming Sale (after a most successful season, demanding an enormous stock) will be no exception to the rule; in fact, many departments will be showing goods at once BETTER IN QUALITY and LOWER IN PRICE than on any previous occasion.

ALL ARTICLES MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES.

EVERY ITEM IN THE CATALOGUE A DISTINCT BARGAIN!

Post Orders promptly executed. Cheques crossed London and South Western Bank. Money Orders payable at G.P.O.
