REPLIES TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Out-of-Work.—We regret we receive many applications such as your own. The Nursing profession is becoming largely over-stocked, and it is impossible that all can find work in Private Nursing. It is very doubtful whether with only one year's training you will obtain any private Nursing in London. Certainly none of what you call the "high class" doctors will give you cases. And it would be decidedly unjust could a "one year trained" Nurse come to London and compete with equal chances with those who have devoted three or four years to learning their profession thoroughly. The best advice we can give you is that you either undergo a proper training, or that you join a rural Nursing Association. Although we do not approve of half-trained village Nurses—because the poor should be as well nursed as the rich—there still is an opening in such work for Nurses with one and two years' Hospital experience.

Miss Dalsiel.—An admirable method of preparing sherry and egg is the following: Break an egg into a bowl, add a teaspoonful of sugar, beat the two together until the sugar is thoroughly mixed with the egg, but not enough to produce "froth." Add two tablespoons of sherry and a quarter of a cup of cold water. Mix thoroughly, and strain into a tumbler. Serve as soon as made.

Miss Anderton, London.—A full programme will be issued shortly of the Conferences to be held in connection with the National Council of Women. The Nursing Section will hold four sittings. We will bring your suggestion before the Committee.

Mrs. Graham, London.—Obtain the "Nursing Directory," price 5s., from the NURSING RECORD Office, 11, Adam Street, Strand. We should advise a Children's Hospital to begin with.

Sister B.—Thank you for information; we were not surprised, when the plot became public. Time will prove the folly of starting upon so dishonourable a basis; we have great faith in retributive justice.

Nurse Alice Gray, London.—Call at address named at 10 a.m. on Monday next.
