

and went away next day. So that everyone at all events does not "get used" to nocturnal visitations. I must say that I think one would be enough for me; I feel sure I should not desire to repeat the experience.

I am, dear Madam,
Yours faithfully,

Comments and Replies.

Country Matron.—We should advise you to carry on the discussion in writing; it is so much more businesslike. We do not approve of permanent night nurses.

Probationer G., Durham.—We always recommend nurses to obtain Holbyn's Dictionary of Medical Terms; it costs 10s. 6d., but is by far the best work for your purpose. It is published by Whittaker & Co., Paternoster-Row, E.C.

Miss A. West, Norwich.—Write to Miss Breay, 46, York Street, Portman Square. The Nursing Directory is issued every year. All nurses who are registered by the Royal British Nurses' Association, and those who hold a three years' certificate, and are approved by the Matrons' Council, are eligible for insertion. The Nursing Directory was started to chronicle the professional qualifications of trained nurses, and, if they wish, they can add from year to year any post they obtain. Thus, if a nurse enters her qualifications, such as her certificate of training, the following year she may give the information that she has obtained a sistership or a matronship, medals, or literary contributions. The following is an entry in the Directory:—"Smith, Elinor Pell, 2, De Montfort Square, Leicester.—Registered Nurse, 1890; Cert. Leicester Inf. (Pro. & Nurse), 1878-81 and 1882-83; St. Bartholomew's Hosp. (Staff Nurse), 1883-85; Mansfield Woodhouse Hosp. (Matron & Superintd. of District Nursing), 1885-92; Home Hosp., Leicester (Lady Supdt.), 1892-93; Memb. (& Memb. Gen. Coun.) Roy. Brit. Nurses' Assoc. Contrib. 'Some Aspects of Cottage Hospital Life,' Nursing Record, vol. I, 1889."
