

PRIZES.

The following Prizes are offered for competition amongst readers of the Nursing Record on the following conditions. The award in every case must be regarded as final and beyond dispute.

A PRIZE OF ONE GUINEA will be awarded each month to the Nurse who sends in the best Notes of the Nursing Treatment and the progress of a medical or surgical case of not less than 1000 words,

1. Pinned to the Notes must be a closed envelope containing the writer's full name and address, and FOUR of the Coupons which will appear each week in relation to this competition on this page of the Nursing Record, and which must therefore be cut out by the competitor.
2. All Notes so contributed become the property of the Editor, and will be published in the journal or not, at her sole discretion.
3. The Prize will be awarded first on March 31st, and thereafter on the last day of each succeeding month. All competitions must be sent on or before the 20th of each month to the Editor, 20, Upper Wimpole Street, London, W.

A PRIZE OF ONE GUINEA will be awarded each quarter to the Nurse who has obtained the highest number of marks for answers to the Record questions during the preceding three months.

1. Answers to the questions must reach the Editor, at 20, Upper Wimpole Street, London, W., not later than the Thursday morning after the date of the issue in which they are inserted, and must not exceed 250 words.
2. The name and address of the sender must be written, each week, at the right-hand corner of the first page of the paper sent in.

In order to restrict the Nursing Notes Prizes entirely to readers of the "Nursing Record," each Competitor must cut out and forward with her competition Four of the appropriate Coupons here given.
