

An Old Nurse.—Thank you for your information and papers about the Pension Fund. They will probably be very useful to us. We shall be glad to have your colleagues' papers also. We have an ever-growing mass of such documents, but we are grateful for any additions as nearly every one is valuable in some way to us, so the more you can obtain for us the better we shall be pleased.

Miss Percival, Miss Nairne, Miss Buckstone, "Not Trained," A Nurse, Country Matron, Sister Alice.—We understand that the entrance fee of five shillings will be charged to all Nurses joining after the Association has enrolled four thousand members. Write direct to the Secretary, 20, Upper Wimpole Street, London, enclosing a stamped and addressed envelope for reply. Yes, we earnestly advise Nurses to become members as soon as ever they can do so. It is quite evident to us that if the British Nurses' Association continues to succeed as it has hitherto done, it will speedily get all it wants, and then of course every Nurse will try to become a member, and equally of course the privileges will then be made more and more difficult to obtain.
