THE WOMAN'S SIGNAL
EDITED BY MRS. FENWICK MILLER.
EVERY THURSDAY. PRICE 1d.

The Woman's Signal is THE Weekly Journal for Intelligent Women.

It divides its space between those matters which belong to Woman's Home Life (Cookery, Dress, Hygiene, Family Management, &c.), and the wider interest of the active-minded woman of to-day: the Education, Occupations, doings and ideas of their sex. Thus all women's interests are represented in its pages.

IT IS QUITE UNLIKE ANY OTHER LADIES' PAPER.

Please ask your Newsagent, or order of Messrs. Smith's Railway Bookstalls, to GET IT FOR YOU FOR A WEEK OR TWO; you are sure to wish to continue it.

EXTRACT FROM THE SECOND ANNUAL REPORT, JULY, 1896.

"The Committee have been fortunate enough to secure the active support during the past year of an increased number of leading medical practitioners, several of whom have consented to serve upon the Committee.

"During the past year, £4576 has been received—an increase of just £500 on the receipts during the preceding fourteen months.

"The Committee are, therefore, strengthened in their decision to maintain the principle upon which they have hitherto acted—to restrict membership of the Society to the very best class of trained nurses."
