

Miss Isla Stewart (London) then proposed that the last question alluded to by Mrs. Fenwick might, if the meeting thought fit be referred to the Executive Committee of the Matron's Council, so that due consideration should be given to so important a question. She promised to keep Mrs. Fenwick's optimism within bounds.

Mrs. Fenwick: I am glad to say you will have a difficult task. (Laughter.)

The Meeting unanimously agreed to Miss Stewart's suggestion.

Next week we hope to deal with the two interesting questions brought before the Conference by Miss Alice Wadmore and Miss Georgina Scott.

Appointments.

MATRONS.

Miss CAROLINE H. GLOVER has been appointed Lady Superintendent of the Kasr-el-Aini Hospital at Cairo. Miss Glover was trained at St. Thomas's Hospital, and there held the positions of Staff Nurse and Sister. She was subsequently Staff Nurse and Home Sister at the Hospital for Sick Children, Great Ormond Street. Miss Glover has also held the appointments of Matron to the Kent and Canterbury Hospital and to the New Sanatorium, Shrewsbury Schools, and is at present Matron to the Royal Eye Hospital, Manchester.

Miss A. E. SHERRING has been elected Matron of the Swansea Hospital. She was trained at the Southern Hospital, Liverpool, and has held the appointments of Charge Nurse at the Infirmary, Southport, and the South-Eastern Fever Hospital, S.E.; Sister at the Stanley Hospital, Liverpool; and Night Superintendent at the General and Eye Hospital, Swansea.

Miss FANNY G. DIGWOOD has been appointed Matron of the Pershore Cottage Hospital. She was trained at the Warneford Hospital, Leamington, and has worked on the private staff of that institution.

Miss AMELIA LAWLEY has been appointed Matron of the Infectious Diseases Hospital, Foleshill. She was trained at the Hospital, West Street, Sheffield, and has also worked on the staff of the North Staffordshire Nursing Institution.

ASSISTANT MATRONS.

Miss FLORENCE M. SKERMAN has been appointed Assistant Matron and Sister of the Children's Branch of the Metropolitan Convalescent Institution at Broadstairs. Miss Skerman was trained for three years, and certificated at Guy's Hospital, and was one of the Sisters who was selected for active service in Greece during the late war, where she was one of the four sisters who accompanied

Mr. Osborn to Volo, to help to remove the wounded Greeks by steamer, and where they arrived just in time to see the Turkish soldiers come over the hill, and to rescue the Greeks. Miss Skerman has lately held the position of Night Superintendent at Gore Farm Hospital.

Miss MARY G. WILKINSON has been appointed Matron's Assistant at the Lincoln County Hospital. She was trained and certificated at the Nottingham General Hospital, and has held the posts of Charge Nurse both in the children's ward, and latterly in the female wards of the Lincoln County Hospital.

CHARGE NURSE.

Miss H. SAWLE has been appointed Charge Nurse at the Newport and Monmouthshire Hospital. She received her training at the Cardiff Infirmary.
