

had been done by her predecessor, and it needed an exceptional woman to carry it on. Miss Stewart had done this with distinction, and had also introduced a social element into the life of the nursing staff of the Hospital. She proposed that Miss Stewart be elected a Member of the League. The proposition was seconded by Sister Mark, and carried by acclamation.

It was then proposed by Miss Armitage (Sister Surgery), seconded by Miss Greenstreet (Sister Mark), and carried by acclamation, that Miss Stewart be asked to accept office as President of the League.

Miss Stewart said she could assure the Members that she was very proud of the honour they had done her in appointing her their President. She wished to assure them that she would do her best to make the League a success.

Mrs. Howard Marsh was then proposed as Vice-President, by Mrs. Spencer, seconded by Mrs. Segundo, and accepted office, expressing her appreciation of her appointment.

Mrs. Andrews was proposed as Treasurer by Miss Waind, seconded by Mrs. Groves, and Mrs. Spencer as Secretary proposed by Sister Ophthalmic and seconded by Mrs. Gray.

Miss Stewart then announced that the voting papers showed the Committee proposed had been elected by a large majority, but that Nurse Roberts declined office, as she was so seldom in London.

The members nominated for office as Members of the Executive Committee were Miss Lofts, Matron of the Lewisham Infirmary, Miss Finch, Matron of the New Hospital for Women, Miss Mollett, Matron of the Royal South Hants Infirmary, Miss Barling, Matron of the Infirmary, Kidderminster, Sisters Ophthalmic, Mark, Elizabeth, and Surgery, Miss Mossman (St. George's Hospital), and Nurses Hare and K. A. Scott.

It was proposed by Miss M. Breay, seconded by Miss Polden, and carried unanimously, that this Executive be appointed.

BADGE.

Designs for a badge were then submitted to the inspection of the Members, and one decided upon. Proposed by Sister Mark, and seconded by Miss MacVitie. Votes of thanks to Miss Stewart for presiding, and to Miss Cox-Davies and Miss Sleigh for performing the secretarial work, brought the business part of the proceedings to a close.

The meeting was animated throughout, the following members, amongst others, taking part:—Sister Mark, Sister Casualty, Miss Margaret Rodgers, Mrs. Launcelot Andrews, Miss Finch, Mrs. Staples, Mrs. Gray, Miss Lofts, Mrs. Groves, Miss Todd, Miss M. Breay, Miss Polden, Miss Armitage, Mrs. Segundo, Miss Waind, Miss MacVitie, Mrs. Scott.

Miss Isla Stewart hospitably invited all those present to tea, and a pleasant half-hour was spent, while discussing, the most excellent tea and coffee, and dainty sandwiches and cakes, in recalling past days with old friends, and in making new acquaintances.

Appointments.

LADY SUPERINTENDENT.

MISS DOROTHY BURROUGHS has been appointed Lady Superintendent of the Norfolk and Norwich Hospital. Miss Burroughs received her training at Guy's Hospital, in which institution she held the position of Ward Sister for five years. She then acted for three years as Superintendent of a Home for Girls in Mortimer Street, London, and on two occasions has done duty as locum tenens for the Lady Superintendent of the hospital to which she is now appointed.

GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT.

MISS LAMONT has been appointed General Superintendent of Queen's Nurses in Ireland, in the place of Miss Dunn, who has resigned her post owing to ill-health. Miss Lamont was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Edinburgh. She has been a Queen's Nurse since 1897, and latterly has been Superintendent of the Glasgow Private and District Nursing Home, which is affiliated to the Queen's Jubilee Instituté.

ASSISTANT INSPECTOR.

MISS BACON, who is a Queen's Nurse, has been appointed Assistant Superintendent of the Irish Branch of the Queen's Jubilee Institute, instead of Miss Blackmore, who has resigned.

MATRON.

MISS MARY DEANE has been appointed Matron of the Suffolk and Ipswich Hospital, Ipswich. She was trained at the Manchester Royal Infirmary, and for twelve years has been Sister at the institution of which she has now become Matron.

MISS BEATRICE A. SHARP has been appointed Matron of the Cottage Hospital, Budleigh, Salterton. Miss Sharp received her training at the Royal Infirmary, Hull, and has held the position of Sister of the accident ward and operating theatre at the Taunton and Somerset Hospital, Sister of the medical wards at the Jaffray Hospital, Birmingham, and Matron of the East Cornwall Hospital, Bodmin.

ASSISTANT MATRON.

MISS ANNIE OLIVER APPLEYARD has been appointed Assistant Matron at the Shoreditch Infirmary. She was trained at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, and since the completion of her training

previous page

next page