Prize Puzzle Competition.

We have pleasure in announcing that Miss H. M. Taylor, member of the Registered Nurses Society, 269, Regent Street, has won the Guinea Prize for February.

The right answers are:—

- No. 1. Gamgee. (Gee-ham-gee.)
- No. 2. Spatula. (Spat-U-lay.)
- No. 3. Strapping. (S-tea-rapping.)
- No. 4. Tape-measure. (T-ape-measure.)
- No. 5. Poullice. (Poult-ice.)

We have received a great number of replies this month, many of them very amusing; but the large majority, we regret to say, not quite correct in every particular. In many instances three or four answers are correct.

Five correct answers have been received from

- Miss M. R. Easton.
- Sister Edith Rawlings.
- Miss Annie Thompson.
- Mrs. James.
- Nurse Jane Leonard.
- Nurse Grindling.
- Miss E. Young.
- Sister Sophia Allen.
- Mrs. Joyce.
- Nurse Marie Jamieson.
- Nurse Emily Masters.

We should also consider the following competitors have sent correct replies, as they have merely added "tissue" to the "Gamgee," and as one explains the fact that "tissue" paper is frilled round the bone of the ham, after the approved culinary custom, the sketch appears to permit this addition:—

- Miss Helen Gardner.
- Miss E. E. Fletcher.
- Sister Laura Jones.
- Nurse Annie Simpson.
- Mrs. A. May.
- Nurse Julia Cross.

The new set of Pictorial Puzzles will be found on page VIII. The rules for the Guinea Prize remain the same, and the five coupons published on March 2nd, 9th, 16th, 23rd, and 30th must reach the Editor by Tuesday, April the 2nd, with the answers enclosed.

The Midwives' Bill.

The British Medical Journal says: the Midwives' Bill, which was down to be introduced by Mr. Bond (Nottingham E.), was not brought forward on Tuesday, 19th ult., and will probably be pushed through the House of Lords as the best means of giving it a chance.
