

Our Prize Puzzle.

We have pleasure in announcing that Miss Lucy Bromley, 10, Weston Park, Crouch End, has won the Guinea Prize for May. We are glad that Miss Bromley is the lucky competitor this time, as she has sent correct replies so far to nearly all the puzzles, and has well earned the prize.

KEY TO MAY PUZZLES.

- No. 1. Glycerine. (G-lice-R in E.)
- No. 2. Condy. (C on D.)
- No. 3. Lotion. (Lot-eye-on.)
- No. 4. Turpentine. (T-ewer-pen-tin-e.)
- No. 5. Soap. (Sew-P.)

The following are the correct replies out of a great number sent, a much more satisfactory percentage than last month.

- Nurse Eliza, North Ormesby Hospital, Middlesborough.
- Miss A. E. Wingate, Teviot Terrace, Glasgow.
- Miss A. Buschman, Matron, Prep. House, Felsted School.
- Miss Ada Hunter, Royal Berkshire Hospital, Reading.
- Nurse Amy Allman, Wimblehurst, Horsham.
- Nurse Shipley, North Ormesby Hospital, Middlesborough.
- Nurse Henry, Llanthewy Road, Newport.
- Nurse King, South Eastern Hospital, New Cross.
- Miss A. Rossiter, Kent Nursing Institution, Tunbridge Wells.
- Miss Eleanor Beate, General Infirmary, Chester.
- Mrs. Westaway, Camden Villa, South Woodford.
- Sister Norris, Tudor Road, Norwood.
- Nurse Keene, Hova Villas, Hove.
- Miss M. Fryer, Sheen Road, Richmond.
- Miss M. C. Saunders, Royal Albert Edward Infirmary, Wigan.
- Miss Amelia Slade, Armingher Road, Shepherd's Bush.
- Miss C. R. Buschman, Armingher Road, Uxbridge Road.
- Miss A. M. Jubbs, Wilton House, Holderness Road, Hull.
- Nurse Lloyd, Albion Street, Hyde Park, W.
- Miss A. Jenkins, Grove Park, Denmark Hill.
- Nurse G. Fisher, South Street, Eastbourne.
- Miss Emma G. Macloskie, Mount Hope Terrace, Bridge of Allan.
- Mrs. Garde, Skenfrith Vicarage, Monmouth.
- Miss A. M. Bell, Matron, South Metropolitan District School, Sutton.
- Nurse E. Simmons, Wroughton Road, Balham.
- Miss C. Eddis, Bank Place, Norwich.
- Nurse E. Spencer, Newport Road, Cardiff.
- Mrs. Jolly, Leamington Road Villas, London.
- Miss McBean, Ainslie Place, Edinburgh.
- Mrs. Hare, Enniskillen, Ireland.
- Sister Anderson, Newent, Gloucestershire.

Nurse A. Thompson, Braintree, Essex.

Miss A. Leslie, Wokingham, Berks.

Miss A. Harcourt, 5, Port Vale Terrace, Hertford.

Sister Cameron, of the London Fever Hospital; Nurse Florence Batt, Redcliffe Square, Kensington; and Sister Rhoda Metherell, Registered Nurses' Society, are correct, with the addition of "eye" to No. 3, which is "lotion" only.

The new set of Pictorial Puzzles will be found on page viii. The rules for the Guinea Prize remain the same, and the five coupons published on June 1st, 8th, 15th, 22nd, and 29th, must reach the Editor by Tuesday, July 2nd, with the answers enclosed.

The International Nurses' Congress.

The programme of the International Nurses' Congress at Buffalo has now been arranged as follows:—

Wednesday Morning.

Address of President.

1. The Administration of Hospitals in different Countries.
2. Hospital Administration in America.
3. Hospital Administration in Relation to Training Schools.
4. Women on Hospital Boards.

Wednesday Afternoon.

1. Nurses' Co-operative Societies.
2. The Work of Hospitals as Affecting Other Institutions and the Community at-Large.

Thursday Morning.

Educational Section.

1. Preparatory Instruction of Nurses.
2. What are we Doing with the Three Years' Course?
3. Educational Future of Our Schools.
4. Post-Graduate Work in Hospitals.

Thursday Afternoon.

Symposium of 15 minute papers on "Opportunities and Responsibilities of the Graduate Nurse of To-day." Four papers.

Private Nursing.

Hourly Nursing.

Friday Morning.

District Nursing.

1. Historical outline of Origin and Growth and Present status of District Nursing in England.
2. Notes on District Nursing on the Continent.
3. Methods and Progress of District Nursing in America.
4. The Victorian Order in Canada.
5. Nursing Settlements.

Friday Afternoon.

Army and Navy Nursing.

1. Army Nursing in America.
2. Indian Army Nursing Service.
3. English Navy Nursing Service.
4. The Civil Hospitals of Cuba in 1900.
5. Organization and Legislation Among Nurses.

previous page

next page