

Appointments.

MATRON.

Miss J. McKerron has been unanimously appointed Matron of Chalmer's Hospital, Banff. She was trained and certificated for three years at Charing Cross Hospital, after which she was appointed Night Superintendent, and subsequently Assistant Matron, at the Albert Edward Infirmary, Wigan. Miss McKerron is a native of Aberdeen shire, where her father was a Church of Scotland clergyman, and her brother is in practice in Aberdeen.

Miss Elizabeth Hodges has been appointed Matron of the Cumberland Infirmary, Carlisle. She was trained and certificated at Guy's Hospital, London, at which institution she has, during the last five years, held successively the positions of Holiday Sister, Night Sister, Out-patient Sister, Ward Sister, and Assistant Matron.

Miss Elizabeth F. Pate has been appointed Matron of the Ulster Hospital for Children and Women, Belfast. She was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Liverpool, and at present holds the position of Superintendent at the Bethnal Green Infirmary.

Miss Agnes Almont has been appointed Matron of the Kendal Fever Hospital. She was trained at the City Hospital, Edinburgh, and has held the position of Staff Nurse at the Stockton-on-Tees Hospital, and is at present Charge Nurse and Assistant Matron of the Yoker Fever Hospital, near Glasgow.

ASSISTANT MATRON.

Miss E. Maude Smith has been appointed Junior Assistant Matron to the Poplar and Stepney Sick Asylum. She was trained and certificated at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, after which for a time she worked in connection with a private nursing institution at Mentone. She then studied for and gained the certificate of the London Obstetrical Society at the Ormond Home, Chelsea. In 1899 Miss Smith became a member of the Registered Nurses Society, to which she is at present attached. She is a member of the League of St. Bartholomew's Nurses.

NIGHT SUPERINTENDENT.

Miss Ada Kelly has been appointed Night Superintendent at the Guest Hospital, Dudley. She was trained at the Devon and Exeter Hospital, to which she was afterwards attached in various capacities. She has recently held the position of Sister at the Royal Isle of Wight Infirmary, Ryde.

Miss Annie Gillespie has been appointed Night Superintendent at the Royal Isle of Wight Infirmary, Ryde. She was trained at the Royal Hospital, Portsmouth, and has held the position of Charge Nurse under the Metropolitan Asylums Board.

The League of St. Bartholomew's Hospital Nurses.

THE following certificated nurses have been admitted members of the League, making the total membership 378.

- Miss Marie Fuller,
- „ Helen Smith.
- „ Nina Stokes.
- „ Alice Horsnail.

Miss Evelyn Chadborn.

- „ Emilie Rowles.
- „ Georgiana McNeil.
- „ Emilie Preston.
- „ Leura Appleyard.
- „ Agnes G. Wood.
- „ Agnes Wilson.
- „ Lilian Fulton.
- „ Mary Appleyard.
- „ Gertrude Townend.
- „ Gertrude Mew.
- „ Mary Hetherington.
- „ Charlotte Haslewood.
- „ Edith Barling.
- „ Helen Buckland.
- „ Frances Whitley.
- „ Josephine Gibbs.
- „ Constance Cave.
- „ Hannah Helliwell.
- „ Isabella Cochrane.
- „ Eliza Armstrong.
- „ Lucy O'Brien.
- „ Davine Hutton.
- „ Eleanor Ogden.
- „ Ethel Sims.
- „ Margaret Derrick.
- „ Elizabeth Eyles.

Mrs. Scholefield (Graham Marshall).

Wedding Bells.

An interesting wedding recently took place between Miss Eleanor Rotherford, who holds the certificate of St. Bartholomew's Hospital, and until recently held the position of Matron of the Gore Farm Hospital, under the Metropolitan Asylums Board, and Mr. Robert Dunn, who is now in partnership with his brother, Mr. Philip Dunn, at Stevenage. Both brothers are Bart's men, and both have married Bart's nurses, Mrs. Philip Dunn being formerly Nurse Harding.

The Royal Red Cross.

Matron A. Ward and Nursing Sister K. Neville, both of the West African Frontier Force, were introduced into their Majesties' presence on Monday afternoon, and decorated by the King with the badge of the Royal Red Cross.

previous page

next page