

Prize Puzzle Competition.

WE have pleasure in announcing that Miss Ada Hunter, Royal Berkshire Hospital, Reading, is the winner of this month's prize of one Guinea in the Pictorial Puzzle Competition.

The right answers are:—

- (1) Chatelaine. Chat (French for cat), eye (i in the cat's eye), lane.
- (2) Forceps. Four-sea-peas.
- (3) Temperature Charts. Temper—(h)at—Ewer-C.H.-Arts.

Thirty-seven answers have been received, and out of this number only sixteen, including that of the prize winner, are entirely correct. These correct answers have been received from:—

Nurse Shipley, North Ormesby Hospital, Middlesborough.
 Nurse Eliza, North Ormesby Hospital, Middlesborough.
 Miss Lucy Bromley, Crouch End.
 Miss A. A. Harcourt, Hertford.
 Nurse King, South Eastern Hospital, New Cross.
 Sister E. H. Horrowell, Children's Hospital, Bradford.
 Nurse S. Male, St. Barnabas Home, Torquay.
 Miss Mary Burr, Rochester Kent.
 Mrs. Garde, Skenfrith Vicarage, Monmouth.
 Sister A. M. Taylor, R.N.S., London.
 Mrs. Joyce, Cuckfield, Sussex.
 Nurse Annie Thompson, Woodhall Spa.
 Nurse E. Grey, Salford, Manchester.
 Nurse M. Ross, Margaret Street, London.
 Mrs. James, Rosemead, Nottingham.

Of the answers received from twenty-one unsuccessful competitors, the large majority have given "catheter" or "catgut" for reply to No. 1. We fear they have jumped at these conclusions on the strength of that imposing black cat, which certainly appears to be giving itself "airs" out of doors, all alone, in an English lane, under a French name.

We are pleased that these replies have come from all quarters:—London 3; Ipswich, 1; Halifax, 1; Addlestone, Surrey, 1; Wigan, 1; Westgate, 1; St. Leonard's, 1; Hull, 1; Silloth, near Carlisle, 1; Liverpool, 1; Chester, 1; West Malling, 1; Cardiff, 1; Rhyl, 1; Glasgow, 2; Aberdeen, 1; Musselburgh, 1; Dublin, 1.

Nurse Annie Thompson writes:—I have been at this delightful little Spa with a patient for some weeks, and cudgeling our brains (not very bright ones you will think) over your Pictorial

Puzzles, has given us no end of fun during the wet weather. We could not make out No. 1 for some time. We kept trying to make out something to fit "catheter," having guessed "cat," but it was no good, so we began at "lane," and soon found out the "chat." We are looking forward to the new puzzle, and to the NURSING RECORD."

The new set of pictorial puzzles will be found on Page VIII. The rules for the Guinea Prize remain the same, and the four coupons published on February 2nd, 9th, 16th, and 23rd must reach the Editor by Tuesday, February 26th, enclosed with the answers.

Invitations Accepted.

The Matrons' Council, the League of St. Bartholomew's Hospital Nurses, and the Registered Nurses' Society, have already accepted the cordial invitation sent from America to appoint a delegate to the Congress at Buffalo, and seven other nurses and ladies interested in nursing work are making arrangements to be present. It is greatly to be hoped that our fine organizations of Scotch and Irish nurses will also rise to the occasion and be adequately represented on this historic occasion. It is the aim of the Congress Committee to get together a collection of Papers and Reports of nurses' work and progress in every direction that will be of real historic value.

Tokens of Respect.

THOUSANDS of magnificent wreaths arrived at Osborne. One of the first which received an honoured place came from Her Majesty's Army Nursing Sisters, and was inscribed:—

"A small token of loyalty and deep regret from Miss Norman and the Nursing Sisters of the Royal Victoria Hospital, Netley."

The Matrons' Council, of Great Britain and Ireland, sent to Windsor Castle a simple yet beautiful wreath, composed entirely of snowdrops tied with broad purple ribbon, as a mark of the respectful sorrow of the members.

Presentation to Miss Young.

The Sisters, nurses, and others of Guy's Hospital have presented a handsome silver coffee service to Miss E. H. Young, together with an address, expressing their regret at her resignation, and their appreciation of her work during the time she has been amongst them.
