

A Forecast of the Nurses' International Congress.

After months of hard work the American Committee are to be congratulated that they have organised a most interesting Programme for the International Nurses' Congress, to open on September 18th at the beautiful Lakeside City of Buffalo, in the State of New York, and all visitors may congratulate themselves that in attending the Congress, they will also see the Pan-American Exposition, which is now in full beauty, with its

IMPORTANT MEETINGS.

By the courtesy of the Women's Educational and Industrial Union of Buffalo, the Meetings will be held in their handsome Hall, which is in a good central position. The week's campaign will open on Monday, September 16th, when the National Associated Alumnae of the United States will hold their Annual Meeting, under the Presidency of Mrs. Hampton Robb, and this will be followed by an Annual Meeting of the American Society of Superintendents of Training Schools, at which Miss Emma J. Keating will preside. The conduct of business and discussions at these two important varied and brilliantly coloured buildings; its cool courts and lagoons, and a display of electric lighting which turns night into day. All the arrangements for delegates are now completed, and kindly help and hospitality have been offered to all foreign guests, and in a few days the kindly greetings will be extended, and mutual acquaintances made, and we hope many firm friendships founded, which will be of much profit and pleasure.

Most of the English delegates intend to be at Buffalo by Saturday, September 14th, when final arrangements will be made about details, but the week's programme is almost complete.

meetings should prove of great interest to all foreign delegates.
