

At a recent meeting of the Bristol Board of Guardians, the Chairman moved, and Mrs. Trebilco seconded, a resolution recommending that the Local Government Board should sanction a uniform examination and certificate for trained

Children's Infirmary in the same city. She was then appointed Theatre Sister at the Royal Albert Edward Infirmary, Wigan, and afterwards Assistant Matron of the Mill Road Infirmary, Liverpool. She at present holds the position of Poor-law nurses, and it was unanimously carried.

Miss Margaret F. Mulvany, whose portrait we have pleasure in publishing, was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Liverpool, and the Matron at the Infirmary and Dispensary, Bolton, and is a member of the Matrons' Council of Great Britain and Ireland, and is Local Hon. Secretary for Bolton of the Society for the State Registration of Trained Nurses.
