

Vice-Presidents.

THE SOCIETY FOR THE STATE REGISTRATION OF TRAINED NURSES.

THE LADY HENRY SOMERSET,

President, National British Women's Temperance Association; President, World's Women's Christian Temperance Union; founder and generous supporter of the Industrial Farm Colony for Inebriate Women at Duxhurst; member (ex-officio) National Council of Women of Great Britain and Ireland; founder and sometime editor of the Woman's Signal; and the most eloquent public speaker in Great Britain.

LADY MUNCASTER,

wife of the Lord Lieutenant of the county of Cumberland; foremost in all local movements for the general welfare; much interested in county nursing matters; Ruling Councillor Primrose League.

LADY LUMSDEN,

widow of the late Sir Harry Lumsden, K.C.S.I., C.B.; of Belhelvie, Aberdeenshire; greatly instrumental in organising a Scottish fund and hospital for South Africa; much interested in nursing and hospital matters; member of the Primrose League.

LADY M'LAREN,

wife of Sir C. B. Bright M'Laren, K.C., M.P. for Bosworth; President Kensington Women's Liberal Association, and member of the Executive Committee Women's Liberal Federation, member Executive Committee National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies; deeply interested in the improvement of the condition of professional and industrial women workers; a generous supporter of all movements for the progress of women; eloquent public speaker.

LADY ROBERTS-AUSTEN,

Chairman of the Womersley Parish Council, Surrey, member of District Council, Guardian of the Poor, member of the National Union of Women Workers, member of the Legislation Sectional Committee, supporter of the National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies.

MRS. GARRETT FAWCETT, LL.D.,

Chairman of Executive Committee National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies, member of the Executive Committee of the Women's Liberal Unionist Association, Vice-President National Union of Women Workers of Great Britain and Ireland, member (ex-officio) of the National Council of Women of Great Britain and Ireland, President of Committee Concentration Camps Commission to South Africa; authoress of works on Political Economy; eloquent public speaker.

MRS. SCHARLIEB, M.D.,

M.D. Lond., M.S. and B.S. Scholarship and Gold Medallist in Obstetric Medicine, Honours in Medicine, Forensic Medicine and Surgery, member British Medical Association, Senior Surgeon New Hospital for Women, Lecturer on Midwifery and Diseases of Women and Children London School of Medicine for Women, late Lecturer to Queen Victoria's Jubilee Institute for Nurses; authoress of several standard works on Diseases of Women, brilliant operator, eloquent public speaker, supporter of women's suffrage.

MISS CONSTANCE L. MAYNARD,

Mistress Westfield College since 1883, Moral Science Tripos, certificated student in honours of Girton College, Cambridge; convener of the Educational Section, International Congress of Women, London, 1899.

MISS FLORA STEVENSON,

Chairman Edinburgh School Board, member Edinburgh Association for University Education of Women, Vice-President National Union of Women Workers, member (ex-officio) National Council of Women of Great Britain and Ireland, member Legislation Sectional Committee, member of the Council of Scottish Branch Queen Victoria's Jubilee Institute for Nurses, member Executive and Nursing Committees Scottish Branch Colonial Nursing Association.

MRS. HOMAN,

member London School Board (Tower Hamlets); indefatigable in her efforts to provide first class teaching for the children in domestic science and hygienic surroundings; member of the Committee of the London School Nurses' Society, founded to provide visiting nurses for elementary schools in poor districts (such nurses are able to decide what children require medical advice and treatment, and to lessen the risk of contagion by recognising infectious complaints in an early stage); deeply interested in every movement for the betterment of the social condition of the poor.

MISS CATHERINE DREW,

Vice-President of the Institute of Journalists, member Women's Press Association, strong advocate of co-operation of professional and industrial women workers, able journalist, and worker for the advancement of women.

MRS. EVA M'LAREN,

Treasurer Women's Liberal Federation; ardent suffragist, able writer and eloquent public speaker; deeply interested in higher education for women, the Peace propaganda, temperance work, and equal moral standard for both sexes.

MRS. C. CARMICHAEL STOPES, authoress of "British Freewomen: their Historical Privilege"; authority on 16th century literature and Shakespeare; authority on Census returns; was one

previous page

next page