Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service.

THE ANNUAL DINNER.

The Annual Dinner of Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service was held at St. Andrew's Club, Mortimer Street, on Wednesday, June 29th.

The Viscountess Downe presided, and the following guests and members of the old Army Nursing Service and Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service were present:—

Miss Monk, Matron King's College Hospital; Miss Cave, Matron Westminster Hospital; Miss Sidney Browne, Matron-in-Chief.

Miss Gray, Mrs. Eccles, Mrs. Freyer, Misses MacVicar, Briggs, Grist, Pocock, Dowse, Saunder, Army Nursing Service.

Misses Addams-Williams, Becher, Oram, Garriock, Knox, A. B. Smith, G. E. Saunder, McCarthy, Jones, Richards, Tait, Magill, Powell, W. Potter, Wohlmann, Taylor, Hewetson, Kendall, Watson, Stronach, Byers, Mason, and Ward, Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service.

The health of His Majesty the King, and the President of the Service, Queen Alexandra, was proposed by Lady Downe, and drunk with enthusiasm.

Great regret was expressed at the absence of the Countess Roberts, the Vice-President, who was unable to attend on account of a previous engagement.

Lady Downe, in an admirable speech, placed before the members the importance of the work in which Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service was engaged, and exhorted the Service to maintain a high standard of excellence.

Miss Monk, Matron of King's College Hospital, proposed the health of Miss Sidney Browne, the Matron-in-Chief, coupled with the name of Miss Becher, Principal Matron; she expressed the satisfaction which the civil nursing profession felt in the development of nursing in the Army, and cordially congratulated the members of the Service on the steady progress which had been made.

Miss Browne returned thanks in a few suitable words.

After dinner, by the kindness of Miss E. Debenham, the Club rooms were used by the guests, Miss C. Debenham kindly contributing to the pleasure of the guests by playing some beautiful selections on the violin, her sister accompanying her on the piano. Mrs. Freyer and Miss Saunder also sang some delightful songs.

It was the universal opinion that an annual dinner was an admirable institution, affording an opportunity for many old friends to meet, and that it was probable that this interesting reunion would become increasingly popular as time went on.
