

Appointments.

MATRONS.

Miss Irene Webb has been appointed Matron of the Brompton Hospital Sanatorium and Convalescent Home, Frimley. She was trained for three years at the London Hospital, and has had experience in the nursing of infectious diseases under the Metropolitan Asylums Board in London; her present position is that of Matron of the Isolation Hospital, Leicester. Miss Webb is a member of the Matrons' Council of Great Britain and Ireland.

Miss Agnes G. Small has been appointed Nurse-Matron of the Cottage Hospital, Denmy. She was trained at the North Riding Infirmary, Middlesborough, and has held the appointment of Nurse-Matron at Blairbridge School. She has also had experience in district nursing in connection with the Queen Victoria's Jubilee Institute, and as a private nurse.

Miss Lewis has been appointed Matron of the Lebanon Hospital for the Insane, Beyrout, Syria. Since concluding her training she has held similar positions of responsibility in Smyrna and Cairo.

SISTERS.

Miss Amy Erwood has been appointed Theatre and Home Sister at the Oldham Infirmary. She was trained at King's College Hospital, and has held the position of Sister at the County Hospital, Lincoln, and of Sister of the Theatre and Male Wards at the Oldham Infirmary for the last two years.

Miss Bertha L. Collins has been appointed Sister of the Isolation Ward at the Wolverhampton and Staffordshire Isolation Hospital, in which institution she was trained. She has held the position of Nurse at the Hospital, Llandrindrod Wells; of Night Sister at the West Suffolk Hospital, Bury St. Edmunds; and of Sister at the East Anglia Sanatorium, Nayland.

Miss Stanley has been appointed Sister at the Children's Hospital, Nottingham. She was trained at St. Thomas's Hospital, London.

COUNTY COUNCIL LECTURER.

Miss Minnie Leng has been appointed Lecturer under the Cornwall County Council to the St. Ives District. She holds a one year's certificate of training as a Lady Pupil at Guy's Hospital, where she subsequently acted as Assistant Matron, and for two years as Sister. She was then appointed Matron of the General Hospital, Wolverhampton. She holds the South African War medal.

The following competitors have guessed three out of four puzzles correctly:—

Miss L. Holland, R.N.S.; Miss F. Sheppard, Kent Nursing Institute, Tunbridge Wells; Mrs. Rose Leigh, Newton Cottage, Lympstone; Miss A. Pettit, Northern Hospital, Winchmore Hill; Miss E. M. Nevill, Bishop's Castle, Shropshire; Miss J. G. Thomas, Woodholm, Leyton; Mrs. M. Shoesmith, Bow Lane, Durham; Miss M. Whitworth, West Kent General Hospital, Maidstone; Miss C. Thompson, Eaton Place, W.; Miss L. Scammell, West Kent Hospital, Maidstone; Mrs. M. Lumley, London Road, Lowestoft; Miss M. Macintosh, Park Street, W.; Miss M. McWilliams, District Asylum, Omagh.

This month shows a great falling-off in competitors, and Arabella Water—a most excellent natural mineral water—is evidently not sufficiently known to the nursing profession at large.

Several competitors failed to endorse envelope "Prize Puzzle."

The new set of puzzles will be found on p. viii. The rules remain the same.
