

"The American Journal of Nursing, and the American Nursing Press," Miss M. E. P. Davis, Boston, U.S.A.

"Unterm Lazaruskreuz," Fraulein Karll, Editor.

"Bulletin Professionnel des Infirmières et Gardes Malades," Mme. Gillet, Founder.

"La Garde Malade Hospitalière," Dr. Anna Hamilton.

International Reciprocity.

"International Reciprocity in Nurse Training and Work," Miss Van Vollenhoven, Holland.

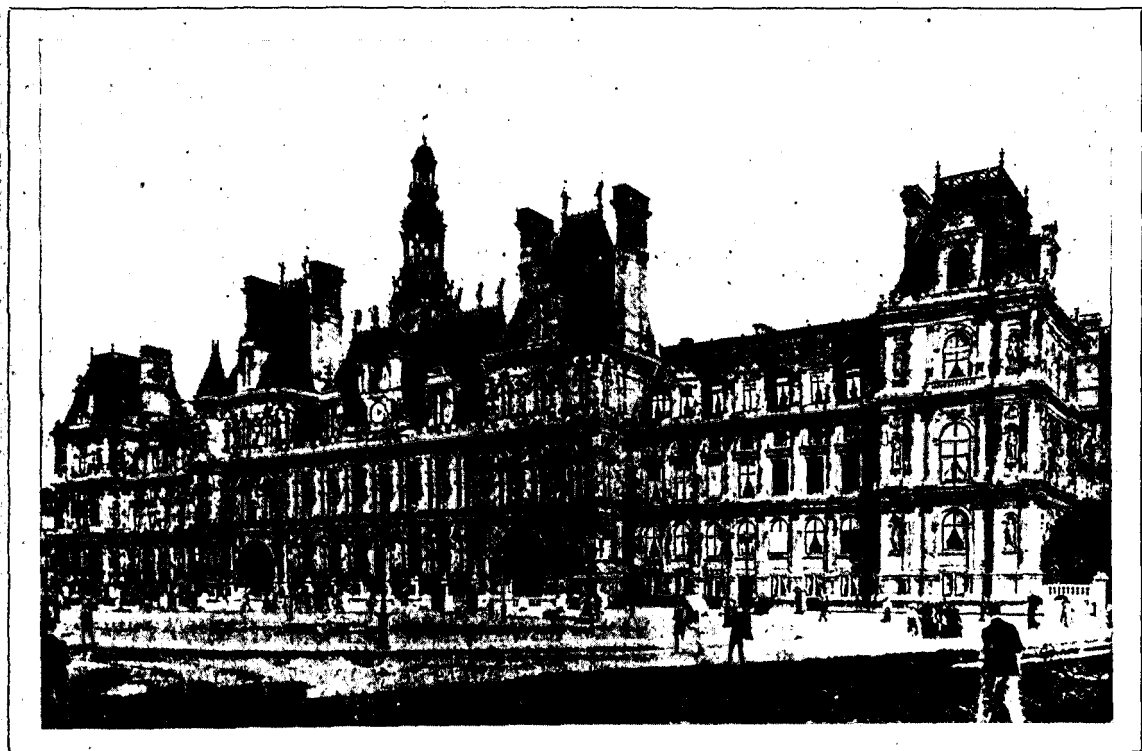

Thursday, 20th.—Reception by Mons. Me-sureur, Directeur de l'Administration Général de l'Assistance Publique, at the New Nursing College at the Salpêtrière Hospital, 4.30 p.m.

Friday, 21st.—Visit to Versailles, kindly arranged by Mme. Alphen Salvador.

Saturday, 22nd.—Visit to the Chateau of Chantilly, by the kind invitation of the Baroness James de Rothschild.

Farewell Banquet, 8 p.m.

Other excursions and visits to hospitals and kindred institutions in Paris and its suburbs

HÔTEL DE VILLE, PARIS.

Discussion. Opened by Miss C. Elston, Directrice, Civil Hospital and Training School for Nurses, Tondu, Bordeaux.

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS.
(Already Arranged).
JUNE 17TH TO 22ND.

Monday, 17th.—Reception by Miss L. Chaptal, at The Maison-Ecole d'Infirmières Privées, 4.30 p.m.

Tuesday, 18th.—Reception by the Municipal Council of Paris, at the Hôtel de Ville, 4.30 p.m.

Wednesday, 19th.—Reception by Mme. Alphen Salvador, at the Nursing School, Rue Amyot, 4.30 p.m.

will be organised. The members of the Conference are already assured of a cordial reception at the Boucicaut, the Pasteur, and the Maternity Hospitals, the Clinique Tarnier, the Enfants-Assistés, the Villejuif Asylum, and other private hospitals and charities in Paris.

In future issues information as to cost of journey, hotels, and pensions, with the names of those recommended, will be published.

Conference tickets can be obtained from Miss Breay, 431, Oxford Street, London, W., price 1 franc (10d.), or from Miss Dock, in Paris, at the time of the Conference.

previous page

next page