

Appointments.

LADY SUPERINTENDENT OF NURSES.

Royal Infirmary, Edinburgh.—Miss Annie Warren Gill, R.R.C., has been appointed Lady Superintendent of Nurses. Miss Gill received her training in the Royal Infirmary, Edinburgh, and, after rising to the position of Head Nurse (now called Sister), acted for one year as Night Superintendent, and for three years as Assistant Lady Superintendent in charge of the Nurses' Home. When the Edinburgh and East of Scotland Hospital was sent out to South Africa, Miss Gill accompanied it in the capacity of Matron. On her return she again took up duty at the Royal Infirmary until she was chosen by the Government as Matron for service in the Concentration Camps, Orange River Colony. For her services in South Africa Miss Gill received the decoration of the Royal Red Cross, and has been Matron at the Royal Berkshire Hospital since June, 1903. The other selected candidates were Miss Burleigh, Matron of the Royal Edinburgh Hospital for Sick Children; Miss Duff, Matron Dundee Royal Infirmary; and Miss Jones, Birmingham General Hospital.

MATRONS.

Wandsworth Infirmary.—Miss Helen Todd has been appointed Matron. She was trained and certificated at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, E.C., and, at present, is Matron of the Royal National Sanatorium, Bournemouth. We congratulate the Wandsworth Guardians on their discernment in choosing so able a candidate as the head of their nurse training school. Miss Todd is eminently fitted for such a post, being both an able administrator and teacher, besides taking a keen interest in the practical work of nurses. She is a member of the Matrons' Council of Great Britain and Ireland.

London Homœopathic Hospital.—Miss Clara Hoadley has been appointed Matron. She was trained at Guy's Hospital, and holds its silver medal. In December, 1898, she was appointed Assistant Matron at the Royal Infirmary, Preston, and two years later was appointed Lady Superintendent to the Royal National Hospital for Consumption, Ireland. Since 1904 she has been Matron of the Coventry and Warwickshire Hospital.

Queen's Hospital, Birmingham.—Miss Maude A. Buckingham has been appointed Matron. She was trained and certificated at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, London, where she held the position of Sister, and temporarily did housekeeping duties. For the last five years she has been Matron at the Rotherham Hospital and Dispensary.

Hull and East Riding Convalescent Home, Withernsea.—Miss Beatrice Hunter has been appointed Matron. She was trained at King's College Hospital, W.C., where she held the position of Sister for five years. She has also been Matron at the Saltburn Convalescent Home, and Matron of the Alfred Bevan Convalescent Home, Sandgate.

Borough Sanatorium, Graysend.—Mrs. L. Scott has been appointed Matron. She was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and has been Charge Nurse at Eston Hospital, Matron at the Eston Sanatorium, and Matron at the Harrogate and Knaresbro' Joint Isolation Hospital.

Thomas Walker Hospital, Fraserburgh.—Miss Maggie McKay has been appointed Matron out of 100 applicants. She was trained at the Belvidere Hospital, Glasgow, and for the past few months has been working in the Thomas Walker Hospital.

ASSISTANT MATRON.

Royal Halifax Infirmary.—Miss E. S. Innes has been appointed Assistant Matron. She was trained at the Leeds General Infirmary, where she has held the position of Surgical Ward Sister, Sister in Charge of the Operating Theatre, and Night Superintendent.

SISTER.

General Hospital, Birmingham.—Miss L. Clayson has been appointed Sister. She was trained at the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital, where she held the position of Theatre Sister for two and a half years. She has also been Home Sister at the Mill Road Infirmary, Liverpool, and is at present working at the Princess Christian's Nursing Home, Windsor.

Miss E. Blagney has also been appointed Sister. She was trained at Guy's Hospital, and has held the position of Sister at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Belfast, for the last three years.

London Homœopathic Hospital.—Miss F. R. Hicks has been appointed Sister of the Children's Ward, which was for so long under the supervision of Sister Marian Rumball. She was trained in that institution, and after completing her training worked on the private nursing staff, and also for ten months held the position of Night Superintendent. She has recently been working on the staff of the Registered Nurses' Society.

QUEEN ALEXANDRA'S IMPERIAL MILITARY NURSING SERVICE.

Appointments.—The following ladies have received appointments as Staff Nurse: Miss M. Willes, Miss A. P. Wilson, Miss E. Fraser, Miss M. H. Graham, Miss F. Macpherson.

Postings and Transfers.—Sisters: Miss M. Mark, to Royal Herbert Hospital, Woolwich, on arrival from Malta; Miss N. Blow, to Cambridge Hospital, Aldershot, from Military Hospital, Portsmouth. Staff Nurses: Miss V. C. Paschali, to the Queen Alexandra Military Hospital, Millbank, London, from Military Hospital, Chatham; Miss A. P. Wilson, to the Royal Infirmary, Dublin, on appointment; Miss C. E. A. Harries, to Connaught Hospital, Aldershot, on appointment; Miss E. M. Rentzsch, and Miss H. Hartigan, from Royal Herbert Hospital, Woolwich, to Malta; Miss M. Brown and Miss S. Richards, from the Queen Alexandra Military Hospital, Millbank, London, to Malta; Miss M. B. Williams and Miss M. J. Hepple, from Cambridge Hospital, Aldershot, to Malta.

Arrivals.—Sisters: Miss M. Mark, from Malta; Miss W. E. Massey, from Egypt.

previous page

next page