NURSING ECHOES.

THE meeting of the General Council of the British Nurses' Association was probably one of the most interesting, and certainly one of the most important, meetings of that body ever held. The chair was taken by Dr. Wynn Westcott, and there was a number of well-known Hospital Matrons and several Doctors present. The chief interest and discussion was excited upon the question of the Regulations which should be enforced for Registration after June 30. Finally it was
