THANKS FROM MISS NIGHTINGALE.

The Resolution of the Executive Committee has been forwarded to Miss Nightingale, and the members of the Society will learn with gratification that an answer has been received from her secretary expressing Miss Nightingale's thanks, and asking the Hon. Secretary "to be good enough to convey to the Executive Committee of the Society her thanks for the congratulatory Resolution passed by them on the occasion of the presentation of the Order of Merit to her by His Majesty the King."

Progress of State Registration.

The Council of the Australasian Trained Nurses' Association has appointed a Sub-Committee consisting of Dr. Fiaschi, Dr. Sinclair Gillies, Dr. Blackburn, and Dr. Crago, to consider the position of the Association with regard to proposed legislation dealing with State Registration.

The History of Nursing.

We beg to announce that "The History of Nursing," in two volumes, compiled by Miss M. Adelaide Nutting and Miss Lavinia L. Dock, two of the most eminent trained nurses in the world, has been issued in the United States. It is a great work, and can be ordered in this country from G. P. Putnam's Sons, 24, Bedford Street, Strand, London, price one pound. No Nursing Library will be up-to-date without it, indeed everyone who is interested in a reliable history of this best of professions for women should not fail to read it.
