APPOINTMENTS ABROAD.

We rejoice to note that the good work done by the pupils trained at the Nursing Schools in Bordeaux continues to extend beyond the limits of the schools, and that other institutions are benefiting by the work of those who have been so well grounded in their professional duties by Dr. Hamilton and Miss Elston. We learn from La Garde Malade Hospitalière that Mlle. Roulet and Mlle. Chaumont, certificated nurses of the Nursing School of the Tondu Hospital, Bordeaux, have been appointed Dames Hospitalières de l'Armée at the Military Hospital, Bordeaux. Mlle. Houdoire certificated at the Maison de Santé Protestante, Bordeaux, and till lately sous-chefaine in the hospital has been appointed chefaine at the Steel Hospital, Rueil (Seine et Oise). Mlle. Dubois, certificated nurse of the Maison de Santé Protestante, Bordeaux, has been appointed Directrice at the Protestante Sanatorium at Moulleau-Arcachon for the winter season.

Mlle. Durand, pupil in the housekeeping department at the Tondu Hospital, Bordeaux, has been appointed head of the housekeeping department at the Civil and Military Hospital, Albi.

Mlle. Larmanou, certificated nurse at the Protestante Hospital, Bordeaux, where she has held the position of chefaine, has been appointed visiting nurse in succession to Mlle. Imbert, whose engagement has now concluded.

Mlle. Lapuie, pupil at the Tondu Hospital, Bordeaux, has inaugurated the system whereby the nursing in the Infirmary at the School for Boys at Talence, Bordeaux, is undertaken by pupils in their second year.

Mlle. Bouyer, formerly pupil in the housekeeping department at the Tondu Hospital, and Directrice of the Maison de Santé Amiot at Royan has received the distinction of the palmes académiques.

PRESENTATION.

A very pleasing little ceremony took place at the Nurses' Home of the South Wimbledon District Nursing Association at the beginning of the month, when Miss de Froissard, the senior nurse, celebrated her tenth anniversary as District Nurse for the Association. In honour of the occasion she was presented with a beautiful basket of choice spring flowers and a substantial cheque (from the members of the committee) to enable her to take a well-earned holiday in Switzerland.
