

Appointments.

MATRONS.

Borough of Reigate Isolation Hospital.—Miss Frances Mary Cullipp has been appointed Matron. She was trained at the Poplar and Stepney Sick Asylum, and has had three years' fever training under the Metropolitan Asylums Board. She has also held the position of Night Superintendent at the County Hospital, Hertford.

The Metropolitan Ear, Nose, and Throat Hospital, Grafton Street, W.—Miss Helena M. S. Thornton has been appointed Matron. She was trained at Brownlow Hill Infirmary, Liverpool, and has held the position of Sister at Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge, and Housekeeping Pupil at the Hospital for Sick Children, Great Ormond Street, W.C. She has also had experience in private nursing, and is a certificated masseuse.

ASSISTANT MATRON.

Lambeth Infirmary, S.E.—Miss Lilian Ellen Cushon has been appointed Assistant Matron. She was trained at the London Hospital, E., and at the London Fever Hospital, Liverpool Road, and has held the position of Sister at the London Hospital, and of Home Sister at the General Hospital, Bristol. She has also had experience of Private Nursing.

SISTER.

Union Hospital, Sheffield.—Miss Martha Alice Pulley has been appointed Maternity Sister. She was trained at the Union Infirmary, Bermondsey, where she has held the position of Staff Nurse. She has also been Staff Midwife at the City of London Lying-in Hospital.

HOLIDAY SISTER.

West London Hospital, Hammersmith.—Mrs. Lakin (née Alder) has been appointed Holiday Sister at the West London Hospital, Hammersmith. She was trained and certificated at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, London, and was afterwards Staff Nurse at Gordon House Home Hospital, W., until her marriage. On the loss of her husband she decided to resume nursing work again, and before seeking an appointment, with characteristic thoroughness she determined to become conversant with the latest hospital methods, and entered the London Hospital, Whitechapel, for training, beginning in the preliminary training home at Tredegar House. She now holds the certificate of the London Hospital, as well as that of St. Bartholomew's Hospital.

NIGHT SISTER.

County Hospital, Hertford.—Miss Florence King has been appointed Night Sister. She was trained at the General Hospital, Tunbridge Wells, where she has also held the position of Sister.

NIGHT SUPERINTENDENT.

Grey's Hospital, Maritzburg, Natal.—Miss Clemence M. Jones has been appointed Night Superintendent. She was trained at the Royal Southern Hospital, Liverpool, and held the position of Staff Nurse at Gordon House Home Hospital, London, from 1889 to 1900. During the Boer War she went out to South Africa as a member of the Army Nursing Service Reserve, and was employed first as nurse on the Princess Christian Hospital Train, and afterwards in the Military Hospital, Pretoria. Since the conclusion of the war she has worked in the Military Hospital, Malta, and also in South Africa at Wynberg.

SANITARY INSPECTOR.

Holborn Borough Council.—Miss Enid Orange has been appointed Woman Sanitary Inspector to the Holborn Borough Council. She was trained at Bedford College for Women, London University, and for two years held the position of Sanitary Inspector at Leeds.
