Superintendent of L.C.C. School Nurses.—Miss H. L. Pearse.

Private Nursing Institutions.—Mrs. Lucas and Miss Jackson.

Miss Amy Hughes, General Superintendent, Queen Victoria's Jubilee Institute, seconded the resolution in an admirable speech. She emphasised the fact that nurses, who had left their training school, and gained other experience, were eligible for enrolment, as well as those working in connection with it. Ladies nominated were then appointed subject to their consent to act.

The proceedings concluded with a hearty vote of thanks to the Lady Mayoress for presiding over the meeting, and to the Lord Mayor for the use of the Mansion House, proposed by Sir Edwin Cornwall, and seconded by Lieut-Colonel W. Campbell Hyslop.

The Lord Mayor, in acknowledging the vote of thanks, said that the Lady Mayoress would be pleased to accept the presidency of the united committees. He agreed that the work of the Committee was women's work, and wished it every success.
