

Our Guinea Prize.

We have pleasure in announcing that Miss B. Howard, Mile End Infirmary, Bancroft Road, E., has won the Guinea Prize for December.

KEY TO PRIZE PUZZLES.

- No. 1.—Formolyptol.
Form owe lip toll.
No. 2.—Ridge's Food.
Ride gees food.
No. 3.—Fase's Watches.
Faces W hot cheese.
No. 4.—Cyllin.
Sill inn.

The following competitors have also solved the puzzles correctly:—

R. Farrer-Baynes, Birkdale; B. Sheard, Chislehurst; A. G. Layton, London; A. G. Macdonald, Alyth; M. Modlin, London; M. Dempster, Llandrindod; C. Moore, Limerick; A. L. Etheridge, London; V. Holder, Brighton; K. C. Long, Sheffield; L. M. Sweet, Aylestone; G. Watts, Bristol; M. Pritchard, Templecombe; S. Bayley, Ryde; S. Longley, Kingscote; T. Morley, London; S. S. Sherring, Liverpool; C. May, Hull; H. Lord, London; K. S. Hoskin, Manchester; C. McCarthy, Llandrindod; E. N. Mostyn, Cardiff; F. Sheppard, Tunbridge Wells, A. Swan, London; T. Appleby, Torquay; E. Dinnie, Harrow; S. Mackenzie, Edinburgh; E. S. Sills, Oakham; C. Fraser, Glasgow; A. M. Shoesmith, Durham; S. A. Dunne, Dublin; A. M. Smyth, Hither Green; T. C. Long, Belfast; M. E. Banks, Manchester; E. A. Hoskison, Wandsworth; T. Lavell, Thornton Heath; M. Webber, Leicester; E. L. Pennie, Motherwell; M. Lester, London; W. Gunter, Aberdeen; C. James, London; N. O. Carmichael, Wigton; A. Masters, Wicklow; T. Keen, Bournemouth; E. Day, Dublin.

The rules for the competition remain the same. They will be found on Page xii.

Appointments.

MATRON.

Private Sanatorium, Ashover.—Miss Bennett, until recently Assistant Matron at the Swansea General and Eye Hospital, has been appointed Matron of a Private Sanatorium, shortly to be opened by Dr. Ida Fox at Ashover in Derbyshire.

Llanelly Hospital.—Miss Davies, Sister of Llewellyn Ward at the Swansea General and Eye Hospital, has resigned the position on her appointment as Matron of Llanelly Hospital.

ASSISTANT MATRON

Swansea General and Eye Hospital.—Miss Ada M. Grasett has been appointed Assistant Matron. She was trained at Guy's Hospital, London, and the General Hospital, Cheltenham, and has held the position of Night Sister at the Children's Hospital, Paddington Green, Ward Sister at the Royal Hants County Hospital, Winchester, Sister at the Victoria Hospital for Children, Chelsea, and Night Superintendent and holiday Home Sister at the Cancer Hospital, Fulham.

SISTERS.

Swansea General and Eye Hospital.—Miss Dora Harbutt has been appointed Sister of Llewellyn Ward, in succession to Miss Davies. Miss Harbutt has for four years held the position of Sister of the Theatres.

Miss Nora Dennis, who was trained at King's College Hospital, will succeed Miss Kempson as Sister of Talbot Ward, in which she has recently been doing Sister's duty.

Miss Kempson, formerly Sister of Talbot Ward, will take charge of the Theatres.

General Infirmary, Burton-on-Trent.—Miss Edith M. Parker has been appointed Sister. She was trained at the Royal Hants County Hospital, Winchester, and has held the position of Charge Nurse at the East Sussex Hospital, Hastings.

Hospital of St. Cross, Rugby.—Miss Maud E. Matthews has been appointed Sister. She was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Liverpool, and has held the position of Staff Nurse at St. Peter's Hospital, Covent Garden, W.C.

Fermanagh County Hospital, Enniskillen.—Miss E. I. Cressey has been appointed Sister. She was trained at the Huddersfield Infirmary, and has held the position of Staff Nurse at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Belfast.

Princess Alice Memorial Hospital, Eastbourne.—Miss Hutchinson has been appointed Senior Sister. She was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Manchester, and at the Hull Sanatorium, where she subsequently held the position of Sister. She has also held a similar position at the Barnes Convalescent Hospital, Cheadle, has been Night Sister at the Royal County Hospital, Ryde, and Sister at the Miller Hospital, Greenwich.

NIGHT SISTER.

Workhouse Infirmary, Newport, Monmouthshire.—Miss Mary M. Jenkins has been appointed Night Sister. She was trained at the Cardiff Union Infirmary, and has held the position of Nurse at Bridgend Asylum, and of Staff Nurse at Newport County Hospital. She has also had experience in private nursing.

General Infirmary, Burton-on-Trent.—Miss Wilhelmina A. Ingleby has been appointed Night Superintendent. She was trained at the Royal Buckinghamshire Hospital, and has held the position of Sister at the Huddersfield Infirmary and the North Ormesby Hospital, and of Night Sister at the Torbay Hospital, Torquay.

EXAMINATIONS.

An examination of nurses, under the authority of the Scottish Local Government Board, was held at Glasgow University, and Glasgow Western Infirmary, on December 8th, 9th, and 10th. Thirty-five candidates presented themselves for examination. The examiners were Dr. G. A. Gibson, Edinburgh, Dr. J. M'C. Johnston, Eastern District Hospital, Glasgow, and Dr. D. J. Mackintosh, Western Infirmary, Glasgow. The Matrons who conducted the practical part of the examination were Miss H. Gregory Smith, Matron, Western Infirmary, Glasgow, and Miss F. A. Merchant, Matron of the Eastern District Hospital, Glasgow.

previous page

next page