MISS ROBIN'S RESIGNATION.

We are sorry to have to announce that Miss Robin, Lady Superintendent of H.R.H. Princess Christian's nursing work in Windsor since May, 1897, is about to leave. The nursing work has greatly increased and developed under Miss Robin's able superintendency, and she has been much respected in the town and greatly beloved by her staff. Her Royal Highness, Princess Christian, has made Miss Robin a parting present of a silver rose bowl, together with a letter expressing great appreciation of her work. The nurses, past and present, who have worked under her, are presenting her with a gold chain in a casket and a hand-bag. She is also being presented by nurses and servants with an illuminated address, prepared by Mr. Nutt and handsomely bound in oak. The address is in the form of a letter, and expresses grateful appreciation of the courtesy, justice, and kindness the nurses have invariably received from Miss Robins.
