LONDON MISSIONARY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE EXHIBIT.

A beautiful set of model cots, illustrating the treatment of various diseases, carried out by Sister Marian Rumball, now the property of the London Missionary School of Medicine, are kindly lent by the Committee through the kind offices of the Hon. Secretary, Dr. E. A. Neatby. Everyone should make a point of seeing this exhibit, which will be on view in Ante-Room, No. 1, together with the School Nursing Exhibit, in charge of Miss H. L. Pearse, Superintendent of School Nurses under the London County Council, and of the School Nurses' League.

THE MORTUARY EXHIBIT.

This is being arranged by Miss Greenstreet, for so many years Sister Mark, at St. Bartholomew's Hospital. Some beautiful examples of palls, mortuary-linen, etc., will be on view here, and those interested in the reverent care of the dead should not fail to pay a visit to this Section.

THE DISTRICT NURSING SECTION.

The organisation of this important Section is in the hands of Lady Hermione Blackwood, Queen's Nurse; Miss C. C. du Sautoy, County Superintendent for Somerset, Q.V.J.I.; and Miss E. L. C. Eden, Central Organiser, Nurses' Social Union, who have spared no pains to make it complete.

The frieze in this room, which has been painted by Miss Platt, should be specially noted. The lines of the design are made by a bandage, showing a reef knot, clove hitch, spica, etc. The bandage is dropped by an old gamp, and the other end is taken and applied by Queen's Nurses, who are shown attending to childhood, youth, and age.

Amongst the exhibitors in this section are the staff of Carnforth Lodge, Hammersmith, the Ran-yard Nurses, Miss Loane, Miss Hadden, Miss E. L. C. Eden, the Nurses' Social Union, the Bedford Hospital Guild, Miss Vaughan, of the Westminster District Nursing Association, Miss Cowper, Superintendent, Scottish Branch, Q.V.J.I., the Midwives' Institute; Miss Hitchcock, of the Nurses' Settlement, New York; Miss Elston, Bordeaux; Miss Tilanus, Amsterdam; and from Cuba Miss Hibbard is bringing a Cuban baby's layette, and other exhibits. There are also many interesting models, illustrative of the work of Queen's Nurses, and dolls in costume.

EXHIBITING FIRMS.

We have only to mention the names of the firms who are exhibiting to show that this section of the Exhibition will be both interesting and comprehensive. Social Arrangements.

The American Federation of Nurses is the largest and most powerful organisation of nurses in the world, and it is gratifying to know that the importance of the work of trained nurses is recognised by the American Embassy in London. Already hundreds of nurses are looking forward to the Reception, which Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, wife of the American Ambassador, will give at Dorchester House on the afternoon of Wednesday, July 21st. Now she has added to her kindness by inviting the President and delegates of the American Federation to luncheon on that day, an invitation at which they will naturally be much gratified.

It is with regret we announce that no more tickets are available, excepting for the foreign fraternal delegates, for the Receptions at Dorchester House and the Mansion House, as they have all been distributed.

THE INFANTS' HOSPITAL, VINCENT SQUARE, S.W.

Twenty members of the Congress are invited to visit this interesting and beautiful little hospital on Monday afternoon, July 19th. The party will meet in Room No. 1 at the Caxton Hall at 2.50 p.m., and, as it is limited to 20 in number, it is hoped that members of the Congress who desire to join it will give in their names as soon as possible to the Secretary, N.C.N., 431, Oxford Street, W.

Dr. Ralph Vincent, the Senior Physician, and the Matron, Miss Worthington, will kindly receive the party at 3.15 p.m., when the programme followed will be

1. Short demonstration in the Lecture Theatre by Dr. Ralph Vincent.

2. During inspection of the Hospital Dr. Vincent and the Matron will explain its special work.

3. Tea with the Matron.

The educational interest of the hospital is unique.

VISIT TO THE TOWER.
