THE PASSING BELL.

We regret to record the death of Miss Violet Bosomworth, a nurse at the Middlesbrough Infirmary, through a distressing accident. The nurse was tidying the dispensary when she dropped a bottle of methylated spirit. The bottle broke and the vapour was ignited by a gas jet, and the flame spread and set fire to the nurse's clothes. She was wrapped in a rug by other nurses, who put out the flames, but she was terribly burnt and died the same night.

Miss Hastie, Superintendent of the Mental Nurses' Co-operation, 49, Norfolk Square, W., asks us to make clear that Miss Amy Downey, now of 44, Norfolk Square, helped in the management of the Home, not of the Co-operation, which is a separate business.
