Nursing Echoes.

The July meeting of the Matrons' Council of Great Britain and Ireland will, by the courtesy of the Governors, be held at the Royal Hants County Hospital, Winchester, at 4 p.m. The party from London will travel by the train leaving Waterloo at 11.40, arriving at Winchester at 1.12. This will allow members to see the Cathedral, and possibly St. Cross—a most interesting old church and buildings with a brotherhood attached—before going on to the hospital, where the authorities will kindly entertain them at tea. The business meeting will be held at 4 p.m., and at its termination an open meeting will be held, when Mrs. Bedford Fenwick will speak on the International Nursing question, with special reference to the meeting at Cologne in August, 1912. The return train leaves Winchester at 5.52, arriving at Waterloo at 7.30. Return fare 10s. 6d. Members intending to be present are asked to inform Miss Mollett, Rose Cottage, Three Cross, Wimborne.

Miss M. S. Rundle, the Isla Stewart Scholar, has now returned from New York, very well and full of energy, and having greatly enjoyed her experiences in the United States. She is sure to receive a warm welcome at the meeting of the St. Bartholomew's Hospital Nurses' League on July 1st.

At the meeting of the Royal National Pension Fund for Nurses last week, at which Sir Edward Hambro presided, at the rooms of the Society of Arts, the question of the position of nurses under the National Insurance Bill was discussed, and the Chairman said that so far as he could see the nurses of England, while insuring under the scheme would get very little advantage from it. He also mentioned that £8,780 in cash and promises had been collected by the nurses of the Fund and their friends towards the King Edward Memorial, to which their President, Queen Alexandra, had subscribed £100. Nearly half the amount had been collected by Miss Cave and her Committee from nurses outside the Fund.

Mr. Frederick Schooling, who spoke on the Insurance Bill, said that all nurses would come within the compulsory provisions of the measure. Owing to the heavy sickness rate amongst nurses there would probably be little
