

APPOINTMENTS.

MATRON.

Abertysswg Workmen's Hospital, Abertysswg.—Miss Mary Edith Humphrey has been appointed Matron. She was trained at the Royal Free Hospital, London, where she afterwards held the position of Night Sister, and of Sister of a male surgical ward.

Newton Abbot Hospital, Newton Abbot.—Miss Eleanor Higham has been appointed Matron. She was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Liverpool, where she was Sister in Sir James Barr's male medical wards for two years, and in his female wards for four years. Since December, 1908, she has been Night Superintendent.

Weymouth and County Dorset Royal Eye Infirmary, Weymouth.—Miss Isabella Chaplin has been appointed Matron. She was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Wigan, and the Royal Eye Hospital, Manchester, and has held the position of Sister for three years at the Bradford Eye and Ear Hospital, and is at present Ophthalmic Sister at the General Infirmary, Cardiff.

Infectious Hospital, Keycol Hill, near Sittingbourne.—Miss Jessie Baker has been appointed Matron. She was trained at the Liverpool E. City Hospital and at the Stanley Hospital in the same city, and is at present Matron of the Borough Hospital, Devonport.

SUPERINTENDENT.

Staffordshire Training Home for Nurses, Tipton.—Miss Norah Roth has been appointed Superintendent. She was trained at the General Infirmary, Gloucester, and under the Plaistow Maternity Charity, and has worked at the Delancey Fever Hospital, Cheltenham, and the Cotswold Sanatorium for Phthisis. She has also been Assistant Superintendent at the Plaistow Maternity Charity's Central Home, and at the East Ham Home, and Assistant Superintendent of the Hampshire County Nursing Association. She is a certified midwife.

ASSISTANT MATRON.

Newton Abbot Hospital and Dispensary.—Miss Alice A. Lea has been appointed Assistant Matron. She was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Liverpool, and has been Staff Nurse and temporarily held the position of Sister at the Royal Infirmary, Oldham. She has also done holiday duty in connection with a district nursing association affiliated to the Queen Victoria's Jubilee Institute at Wallsend-on-Tyne, and has been Nurse-in-Charge of the Fullerton Hospital, Denaby Main.

City Hospital, Fazakerley, Liverpool.—Miss Frances K. Rawlings has been appointed Assistant Matron. She was trained at Fir Vale Hospital, Sheffield, and Blackpool Isolation Hospital; and has since held the appointments of Sister at the City Hospital, Netherfield Road, Liverpool; and Night Sister and Home Sister at the City Hospital, Fazakerley, Liverpool. She also holds the C.M.B. certificate.

HOME SISTER.

General Hospital, Birmingham.—Miss K. G. Lloyd has been appointed Home Sister and Night Sister (these posts being held alternately), at the General Hospital, Birmingham. She received her training in the same institution; was Staff-Nurse in the Operating Theatres; and afterwards Ward Sister. She has also done temporary duty as Night Sister.

City Hospital, Fazakerley, Liverpool.—Miss Cora E. Jennings has been appointed Home Sister. She was trained at Chester General Infirmary, and Kendray Isolation Hospital; and has since held the appointments of Sister and Night Superintendent at the City Hospital, Fazakerley, Liverpool.

SISTER.

General Hospital, Birmingham.—Miss H. Emmerson has been appointed Ward Sister at the General Hospital, Birmingham. She was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Sheffield; was Staff Nurse and temporary Night Sister at the New Hospital for Women, Euston Road, London; and for the last two years, has held a Ward Sister's post at the Norfolk and Norwich Hospital.

Borough Hospital, Birkenhead.—Miss Florence McDermott has been appointed Sister. She was trained at the General Infirmary, Worcester, and has been Staff Nurse and Charge Nurse at the New Hospital for Women, London.

The Leicester Infirmary.—Miss Elizabeth Oliver has been appointed Sister. She was trained at University College Hospital, London, where she acted as Temporary Sister.

NIGHT SUPERINTENDENT.

Borough Hospital, Birkenhead.—Miss Helen Haddon has been appointed Night Superintendent. She was trained at the Cumberland Infirmary, Carlisle, and at Plaistow Hospital, London, and has had experience of private nursing, and held the position of Sister of Male Wards and Theatre at the West Herts Hospital, Hemel Hempstead.

City Hospital, Fazakerley, Liverpool.—Miss Elizabeth J. Sherris has been appointed Night Superintendent. She was trained at the Bolton Infirmary and Dispensary, and has since held the appointments of Assistant Nurse and Sister at the City Hospital, Fazakerley, Liverpool.

SUPERINTENDENT NURSE.

Malling Union, West Malling.—Miss Amelia A. Alder has been appointed Superintendent Nurse. She was trained at the Central London Sick Asylum, Hendon, and has had experience of District Nursing in connection with Queen Victoria's Jubilee Institute. She has also held the position of Superintendent Nurse under the Uxbridge and the York Unions, and of Senior Nurse in connection with the Soldiers' Families Association, Dover.

QUEEN VICTORIA JUBILEE INSTITUTE.

Transfers and Appointments.—Miss Mabel Lambert to Torquay; Miss Evelyn Sladen to Malvern Link; Miss Elizabeth Prior to St. Bees, Cleator; Miss Louise Downer to Winslow; Miss Lucy Hopwood to Tottington.

previous page

next page