

APPOINTMENTS.

MATRON.

Durham County Sanatorium.—Miss Margaret F. Macintyre has been appointed Matron. She was trained at the Glasgow Royal Infirmary, and was Sister-in-charge at the Consumption Sanatorium, Bridge of Weir, Sister of the Out-patient and Massage Department, Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge, Night Superintendent, Fulham Infirmary, and Assistant Matron at the Infirmary, Isleworth. At present Miss Macintyre is Superintendent of Queen Charlotte's Nurses' Home and Residential College for Students. She holds a certificate for massage.

Conisbrough Isolation Hospital.—Miss E. Symington has been appointed Matron. She was trained at Stobhill Hospital, Glasgow; and has been Charge Nurse at Craigleith Hospital, Edinburgh; and Sister and Night Superintendent at the Union Hospital, Bradford. She holds the certificate of the Scottish Local Government Board, after passing its Central Examination.

General Hospital, Barbadoes.—Miss M. Farrow has been appointed Matron. She was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Wigan; has held the position of Sister at Rawcliffe Hospital, Chorley; the Colonial Hospital, Gibraltar; and at Government Hospital, Northern Nigeria; and home Sister, theatre Sister and Matron at the Infirmary, Bury, Lancs. Miss Farrow has had experience in private and district nursing, and holds the C.M.B. certificate.

NURSE MATRON.

Isolation Hospital, Harden Bridge, near Austwick.—Miss Nellie Greenwood has been appointed Nurse Matron. She was trained at the Royal Hospital, Sheffield, and has been Sister in that institution of the Nursery, and of the women's surgical ward. She has also been trained in the care of Infectious Diseases.

NIGHT SUPERINTENDENT.

Camberwell Infirmary.—Sister A. M. Funnell has been promoted to the position of Night Superintendent at the Camberwell Infirmary. Staff Nurse E. C. Harwood has become a Sister.

SISTER.

Fever Hospital, West Bromwich.—Miss H. Powell Evans has been appointed Sister. She was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Manchester, and Belvedere Fever Hospital, Glasgow, and has held the following posts. Sister at Belvedere Hospital, Night Superintendent at the Borough Hospital, Darlington. Miss Powell Evans has also experience in private nursing, and holds a certificate for housekeeping from the Hospital for Sick Children, Great Ormond Street, London.

Victoria Hospital for Sick Children, Hull.—Miss Anita Parnaby has been appointed Theatre Sister. She was trained at the Royal Free Hospital, London, and has been Night Sister at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, Rochester, and Borough Hospital, Muswell, and Nurse-Matron of the Borough Hospital, Richmond, Yorks.

General Hospital, Kettering.—Miss Marjory Laing has been appointed Sister. She was trained at Dundee Royal Infirmary, where she has temporarily acted as Sister.

CHARGE NURSE.

Mount Sanatorium, Bromsgrove.—Miss B. M. Knowles has been appointed Charge Nurse. She was trained at Edmonton Infirmary, London, where she has been Night Charge Nurse. She has held the position of Charge Nurse at Middlesbrough Infirmary and Epsom Infirmary, has experience in private nursing, and has been Nurse at Ashover Private Sanatorium, Derbyshire. Miss Knowles holds the C.M.B. certificate.

LADY HEALTH VISITOR.

Heston and Isleworth Urban District Council, Hounslow.—Miss Annie Carlton has been appointed Lady Health Visitor. She has been trained in general, fever, and children's nursing; holds Health Visitor's and C.M.B. Certificate; has experience as a lecturer on infant care and hygiene; and has been Health Visitor and Superintendent at the Paddington School for Mothers.

Northumberland Education Committee, Newcastle.—Miss Eva Mary Court has been appointed Lady School Health Visitor. She was trained at the Taunton and Somerset Hospital, Taunton, and has been school nurse at Portsmouth.

SCHOOL NURSE.

Cardiff Education Committee, Cardiff.—Miss Margaret A. Snell has been appointed school Nurse. She was trained at Cardiff Union Hospital, and has been School Nurse at Walsall. She has also experience in private nursing.

INSTRUCTORS.

British Red Cross Society.—The following ladies have been appointed Instructors to Voluntary Aid Detachments. Miss Mabel Sleigh, Miss J. Curtis, Miss J. M. Clay, trained at St. Bartholomew's Hospital; Miss G. D. Morris, at Charing Cross Hospital; Miss G. Payne, R.R.C. at St. George's Hospital; Mrs. Yorke, R.R.C. at St. Mary's Hospital; and Miss Latham at Royal Infirmary, Bristol.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S JUBILEE INSTITUTE.

TRANSFERS AND APPOINTMENTS.

Miss Florence Hughes is appointed to Watford, Miss Olga Leknesund to Three Towns, Miss Annie Aspinal to Crook, Miss Bertha N. Lowe to Winterton, Miss Hilda Matthews to Leamington, Miss Elizabeth Morris to East London (Southern), Miss Ruth Randall to Lingfield, Miss Emily Travis to Crook.

THE NATIONAL GAS EXHIBITION, 1913.

A National Gas Exhibition, to celebrate the centenary of public gas supply and the Jubilee of the Institution of Gas Engineers, has been opened this week in the International Exhibition Halls, adjoining the White City.

Trained nurses will find much to interest them in the efficient and up-to-date appliances for lighting, heating and cooking by gas. There will be cookery lessons twice a day, one course specially arranged for Territorial nurses.

previous page

next page