

NIGHTINGALE DAY.

Miss Rosalind Paget, when unveiling the Liverpool memorial to Miss Florence Nightingale, outside the Queen's Nurses' Central Home, which we here reproduce, from a photograph by the Topical Press Agency, made the NATIONAL COUNCIL DAY.

The Annual Meeting of the National Council of Trained Nurses will be held in London on November 27th, at 11, Chandos Street, Cavendish Square, W. The Meeting from 3.30 to 5.30 p.m. will have before it many interesting happy suggestion that an annual Florence Nightingale Day should be inaugurated, on which nursing questions of professional importance might be discussed. The idea should meet with acceptance.

LIVERPOOL'S TRIBUTE TO MISS NIGHTINGALE.

nursing questions for discussion. Tea will then be served, and at 6 p.m. the Isla Stewart Oration will be delivered. Arrangements will be made for members wishing to do so, to dine informally together.

previous page

next page