WEDDING BELLS.

On November 25th, at St. Stephen's, Preston, the marriage took place of Miss Amy Florence Loveridge, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John M. Loveridge of London and Harleston, Norfolk, and Lieutenant Arthur Cecil Roberts, R.N., eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts, of Heathley, Birkenhead, Cheshire. Mrs. Roberts has recently resigned the position of Matron of the Cottage Hospital, Simons Town, South Africa.

FEVER NURSES' ASSOCIATION.

Miss Morgan, Matron of the Northern Hospital, Winchmore Hill, having resigned the Joint Honorary Secretaryship of the Association, all communications should now be addressed to the Secretary, Miss H. I. Bryson, 60, Dingwall Road, Croydon, Surrey.

AN HONOUR FOR DERBY.

Her Majesty the Queen gave much pleasure during her visit to Chatsworth by paying a visit to the Derbyshire Royal Infirmary on Wednesday, Dec. 10th. The new Matron, Miss M. E. Sutcliffe, has recently taken up her duties at Derby in succession to Miss Darbyshire, now Matron of St. Mary's Hospital, Paddington.

THE PASSING BELL.

We regret to record the sad death of Miss Kate Emily Pearson, a District Nurse in the East of London. Miss Pearson's clothing caught fire while she was mixing some furniture polish, which ignited, and she was so severely burnt that she died next day.
