

she was permitted to retain the ill-gotten gains in the hand-bag stuffed with £201 of gold, notes and valuable jewellery—found in her possession when arrested—she will certainly not require the assistance of the Prisoners' Aid Society, when she is liberated to continue anonymously her infamous career.

It is high time that the magistracy was deprived of the power to protect the anonymity of criminals of the "Queenie Gerard" and "Nurse Betty" type.

APPOINTMENTS.

LADY SUPERINTENDENT.

The Middlesex Hospital, London, W.—Miss Mary Gertrude Montgomery has been appointed Lady Superintendent. She was trained at St. Thomas' Hospital, and is at present Matron of Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge.

Hospital for Paying Patients, Duff Town, Banff.—Miss Elizabeth M. Boath has been appointed Lady Superintendent. She was trained at the Royal Infirmary, Dundee, where she held the position of Sister in the men's surgical ward, the theatre, and the gynæcological ward. She was then Sister at St. George's European Hospital, Bombay for a year, and has held the position of Night Sister at Charing Cross Hospital since May 1911.

MATRON.

Isolation Hospital, Gravesend.—Miss A. J. Youngman has been appointed Matron. She was trained at the Northern Hospital, Manchester, and has been Health Visitor for Holy Trinity Lambeth Relief Commission, Night Sister at the Royal Waterloo Hospital, and has also done district nursing.

Summerseat Residential School, Bury, Lancashire.—Miss Marion Amy Hall has been appointed Matron. She was trained at the General Hospital, Newark, and the Hospital for Sick Children, Great Ormond Street, W.C., and has also held the position of District Nurse and Superintendent in connection with Queen Victoria's Jubilee Institute for Nurses.

Cottage Hospital, Ledbury.—Miss Florence M. Johnson has been appointed Matron. She was trained at the Royal Albert Edward Infirmary, Wigan, and has been Matron of the Cottage Hospital, Fairford.

NIGHT SUPERINTENDENT.

Derbyshire Royal Infirmary, Derby.—Miss Gertrude Bulman has been appointed Night Superintendent. She was trained at the General Infirmary, Leeds, and has held the position of Charge Nurse in the Isolation Blocks at the General Infirmary, Leeds, and of Sister of the Male Surgical Ward in the same institution.

SISTER.

The Sanatorium, Huddersfield.—Miss A. Kennedy has been appointed Sister. She was trained at the Stanley Hospital, Liverpool, and the Park Hill Fever Hospital in the same city, and has had experience of private nursing.

SCHOOL NURSE.

Borough of Poole.—Miss H. I. Partridge has been appointed School Nurse. She was trained at the Kidderminster General Hospital and the City of London Lying-in Hospital; has been Maternity Nurse at Poole, and at Thornbury (Glos.), District Nurse at Grays (Essex), and General and Maternity Nurse at Yarmouth (I.W.).

DISPENSARY NURSE.

Fulham Dispensary for the Prevention of Consumption.—Miss Florence Wise has been appointed as nurse. She was trained at the Great Northern Central Hospital, and has held the positions of Night Superintendent and Ward Sister at the Royal Sussex County Hospital, Brighton, Matron of the Crooksbury Sanatorium, Surrey, and Sister-in-Charge of a convalescent home. She has also had experience of private nursing. She holds the certificates of the Royal Sanitary Institute, and the Royal Hospital for Diseases of the Chest Post Graduate Course.

LONDON COUNTY COUNCIL.

The Establishment Committee of the London County Council recommended to the Council at its meeting on Tuesday that, subject to their passing the usual examination, the following nurses should be appointed to fill vacancies in the public health department: Miss Louie Harriett Spong, Miss Muriel Elspeth Butler, Miss Dorothy Elsie Coppin, Miss Emma Elliott, Miss Amy Marion Hale, Miss Florence Louise Johnson, Miss Edith Caroline Newell, Miss Harriet Cecilia Richards, Miss Mary Teresa Ross, Miss Kate Mary Rowe, Miss Sophie Searle, Miss Ellen Bessie Feacey, Miss Mabel Ethel Jacques, Miss Rowena Jeans Lush, Miss Kathrin Helen Prior, Miss Ethel Pulman and Miss Emily Hopwood Young.

QUEEN ALEXANDRA'S IMPERIAL MILITARY NURSING SERVICE.

Sister Miss Susan B. Lanyon resigns her appointment (July 10).

QUEEN VICTORIA'S JUBILEE INSTITUTE.

TRANSFERS AND APPOINTMENTS.

Miss Marian S. Burford is appointed to Sunderland as Superintendent; Miss Ethel Bills, to Accrington, as Senior Nurse; Miss Mary A. Stephens, to Bitteswell; Miss Catherine West, to Llantarnam and Cwmbran.

Miss Marian Singleton Burford received general training at Salford Royal, midwifery training at Glasgow Maternity Hospital, and district training at Edinburgh, and has held the following posts: Queen's Nurse, Dundee, Greenock and Hawick; Assistant Inspector, Assistant Superintendent and District Superintendent at the Scottish District Training Home, Edinburgh.

previous page

next page