

Railway and admission to Aquarium, Playa del Rey and Redondo Beach, visiting ten beaches and eight cities. Thirty-six miles along the ocean.

Saturday, 29th.—Leave Los Angeles, 12 noon. Luncheon provided en route. Arrive Santa Barbara 3 p.m. Dinner provided at Hotel Potter, which faces the Pacific Ocean in which surf bathing and an unobstructed view of the blue ocean, with the attractive grounds intervening, furnishes a picture that satisfies one to the fullest extent. Car ride will be provided to the Santa Barbara Mission, one of the oldest in California and still in active use. Leave Santa Barbara 9 p.m.

Sunday, 30th.—Arrive Big Tree Station, 8 a.m. Breakfast provided. Admission provided to Big Tree Grove. These Big Trees rank among the wonders of the world, they are from 250-300 feet high and fifty feet in circumference and are said to be older than the Pyramids. Arrive San Francisco 12 noon. Accommodation provided at the Inside Inn, European plan, located on the Exposition grounds.

PROGRAMME OF CONGRESS.

MONDAY, MAY 31st, 1915.

On Monday, May 31st, the Triennial Meeting of the International Council of Nurses will take place with the usual ceremonies.

Five minute addresses or reports from affiliated countries and from those entering as new members.

TRAINING SCHOOL PAPERS AND REPORTS.

(a) Statistical; Numbers of training schools within state or country—How organized.—How controlled.—Numbers of student-nurses—What type.—How well educated.

(b) How does nursing compare as a career with others in a given country?—Reasons for and against.—What is needed?—What is being done to bring it into first-rank?

(c) Internal management of training schools—Discipline—Self-government: does it exist?—To what extent?—How successfully?—Problems of management: The Matron's authority or scope—How complete is it, or by whom restricted?—What results?—How much power should she have?

STATE REGISTRATION.

How far progressed?—What results?—What improvements are needed?—What results has it had?—By whom administered?—Compulsory or permissive legislation.

EDUCATION.

- (a) Requirements for entering training schools.
- (b) Preparatory training of probationers.
- (c) Arrangement of instruction during course.
- (d) Post graduate work.
- (e) Instruction for special lines of work.
- (f) Courses in connection with institutions of learning.

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING.

- (a) Prenatal care of mothers.
- (b) The various branches of infant saving work.
- (c) Contagious diseases in home and tenement.

(d) Prevention of tuberculosis—instructive oversight of families.

(e) Prevention and instruction on venereal diseases in home and family.

(f) Public school nursing work.

(g) Work with deficient or retarded children and their parents.

(h) Mental hygiene: or the development of nursing work in the line of foreseeing and preventing mental disease, especially among the poor, or in neglected communities.

(i) Rural nursing (country and small towns and villages).

(j) Nursing in lonely or remote country districts.

(k) The affiliation and co-operation of agencies for visiting nurse work.

(l) Extension of Industrial Insurance with nursing; Quality of latter; Standards of same.

SOCIAL WORK.

Temperance Campaign.

Missionary Work.

VARIOUS.

Midwifery: What are its problems?

Private Duty: its organization and control.

The Superintendent of Nurses: Her questions.

Nurses as heads of institutions.

Nurses in lines of work related to, or growing out, from regular nursing work.

Nurses as health visitors, sanitary inspectors, members of hospital and training school boards; as journalists on professional lines.

EDUCATION DAY.

Wednesday, June 2nd, is to be Education Day, when a beautiful spectacular ceremony will be held in the outdoor Greek Theatre of the University of California at Berkeley. The gifts to the Nurses' International Memorial to Miss Florence Nightingale to found a Chair of Nursing and Health will be offered, and men and women prominent in education and social reform will deliver appropriate addresses. Every day there are to be social functions. The Banquet will be held on Thursday, June 3rd.

THE RETURN TOUR.

Leave San Francisco Wednesday, June 9th, 9.30 p.m. Pullman tourist sleeping cars provided to Niagara Falls. En route through Nevada June 10th.

Friday, 11th.—Arrive Salt Lake City 7 a.m. Breakfast and lunch provided at the Hotel Semloh. Side trips provided to Saltair Beach, Utah's Coney Island. It is located on the Great Salt Lake, the waters of which are one-third salt. Visit will be made to the Tabernacle at 12 noon, to view same and attend the organ recital given daily. Leave Salt Lake City 5 p.m. Dinner provided en route, via the famous Denver and Rio Grande R.R., the scenery over which is equal to any in the world.

Saturday, 12th.—Breakfast and lunch en route, over the Continental Divide, through the Royal Gorge, Tennessee Pass, Canyons of the Grande and Eagle Rivers. Arrive Denver 7 p.m. Meals

previous page

next page